Dear Parishioners, Greetings in the Lord!

I am gratefully amazed at the number of people who take advantage of our scheduled weekday Confessions in the Basilica. Each weekday from 11:30 AM until the beginning of the 12:05 PM Mass the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation is available in the Basilica. Frequently an additional priest is needed to assist with penitents, especially so that the celebrant of the 12:05 PM Mass can be prepared and vested in time. This is just one of the many services that the Cathedral Parish provides to our parishioners, to those who work in town or those visiting the City. Confessions are also available on Saturday afternoon, Sunday morning and evening as indicated on the front cover of the bulletin.

I want to encourage our parishioners especially to reclaim the spiritual value of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. The authentic living of the Christian life, the life given to us in Baptism and fortified by our reception of Holy Communion, requires a carefulness about every choice we make. Sometimes our choices are indeed contrary to this life, to Christ and his Gospel, and we sin. We may not want to own this, but we separate ourselves from the Lord and all those who belong to him. Living as a Christian, wanting to live in the grace of the Lord, presumes a regular participation in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation.

Perhaps reading this column will invite you to take some time, to examine your conscience according to the Commandments and Christ's law as we know from the Scriptures and the Church. This type of examination stirs up a real sorrow in the Christian for sins and often prompts a desire for the mercy of the Lord in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Come without fear or hesitation to the Confessional and meet Christ. If you struggle with the Sacrament and/or have some questions and would like some direction, please feel free to speak to one of our priests. It is our privilege and responsibility to help all of our parishioners, all that we meet, to live the sacramental life of a Catholic.

God bless all of you,
Father Dennis Gill

Living Stewardship Now

GOD'S ECONOMY

Today's Gospel tells about a landowner who hired laborers to work in his vineyard. The first ones hired agreed to a price for a day's work. Late in the day, the landowner took on some extra hands. When work ended and the men received their pay, the first hires found they had received the same amount as the ones employed later. There was immediate grumbling about unfairness and being cheated. We should not make the mistake of interpreting this Gospel story in terms of how a boss should behave and how workers are treated in today's world. Fairness and justice in the marketplace are essential, and when a few enrich themselves at the expense of the many, we know it is wrong. As far back as 1891, Pope Leo XIII issued his encyclical Rerum Novarum ("Of New Things"). This groundbreaking document, well ahead of its time, focused on the relationships and mutual duties of labor and capital, and between governments and citizens. It affirmed the necessity of a just wage for working people to support their families, and the right of labor to form unions. The pope rejected both communism and unrestricted capitalism, while affirming the right to private property. In today's Gospel story, we must realize that Jesus is not talking about any of these issues, but rather, God's relationship with people. God acts with justice toward us: like the laborers who worked all day, we receive what God has promised. However, God is free to act above and beyond simple justice. God often gives with unexpected and lavish generosity, even to those we might consider unworthy. The truth is that in God's economy all of us get not merely what we deserve, but more than we could ever have bargained for.

Living Stewardship Now: Decide to work for justice through service to others. A wide range of opportunities is available in the parish and diocese, or tap into the Catholic Network of Volunteer Service at cnvs.org.

Do You Know Your Tribunal?

The Tribunal in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is a group of specially qualified priests, deacons and lay persons whose responsibility is to assist people who have experienced divorce.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. One is the unbreakable bond of marriage. This is God's law. The marriage bond cannot be broken by human intervention. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Was this a true marriage? Even though a Catholic marriage was celebrated, was there perhaps some weakness in the consent of the parties involved? The annulment procedure addresses this problem—at the time of consent--without affixing blame on either party.

If you are divorced or married outside the Catholic Church, please telephone the Tribunal Office. The Tribunal Office is ready and eager to answer all questions. All interviews are private and confidential. Also, please feel free to ask any of the parish priests questions about the work of the Tribunal and the annulment procedure.

LECTURAS CICLO A

Primera lectura: Isaias 55, 6-9. El profeta llama al pecador a convertirse, a dejar el pecado y buscar al Señor, Él está cerca y perdona.

Segunda lectura: Filipenses 1, 20b-26. Nadie como Pablo ha vivido tan intensamente su existencia cristiana hasta poder afirmar: “Para mí la vida es Cristo y la muerte una ganancia”.

Evangelio: Mateo 19, 30—20, 16. A través de una hermosa parábola, Jesús nos revela que el Padre Dios ama a todos, a todas las horas, paga a todos por igual, pues esa paga—el premio—es pura gracia de Dios.

¿Buscan información sobre cómo puede recibir los sacramentos de iniciación tales como el bautismo, comunión y confirmación?

Vayan y hagan discípulos de todas las naciones, bautizándoles en la nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. (Mateo 28:19)

Las Sacramentos de iniciación reciben a los que buscan a Dios y desean aprender más acerca de la fe Católica. Nos alegra ayudar a la gente en su preparación para integrarse totalmente a la Iglesia Católica por medio de los sacramentos de Bautismo, Confirmación y Eucaristía.

Nos reunimos para reflexionar sobre el significado del mensaje bíblico de Jesús en nuestras vidas personales, y poco a poco, venimos a ser parte de la Comunidad de Fe, aprendiendo más acerca de las creencias y tradiciones de la Iglesia y profundizando en nuestro compromiso con Dios y la forma de Vida Católica.

Algunas actividades específicas incluyen oración, participación en actividades parroquiales.

Para más información, por favor, comunicarse con el Señor Jim Browne (habla muy bien el español) o con el Padre Angelo J. Hernández. Dios los bendiga.

The priests of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul are anxious to serve the spiritual needs of their Catholics brothers and sisters residing in the Senior Residences of Atria, Kennedy House, Penn Center House, Riverside Presbyterian, and Watermark.

Therefore, if you are aware of anyone who would like a priest to visit and celebrate the Sacrament of the Penance, the Sacrament of the Sick, and Holy Communion, please let us know.

There is no better way that we can emulate Jesus Christ than by sharing his love with all whom he places in our paths, especially the sick and the aged who long for his healing presence.

Please pass the above requested information on to us by calling the Parish Office at 215-561-1313.

Be assured of the love, concern, and prayers of your priests at the Cathedral and in your goodness pray for us that we may always be channels of Christ's love and peace to others.

WORDS FROM POPE FRANCIS.....

Reflecting on the words of any Pope helps us to grow in our faith—after all, he is our shepherd, the one who calls us on as one body in Christ. We will offer short excerpts taken from Pope Francis' addresses and homilies since his election which will reflect the themes that we can expect to hear again and again during his pontificate.....

The Motivation of Mission

When I was studying theology, I wrote to the [Superior] General [of the Jesuits], who was Fr. Arrupe, asking him to dispatch me, to send me to Japan or to some other place. However, he thought about it a length and said to me, with great kindness, "But you have had a lung disease, which is not very good for such demanding work," so I stayed in Buenos Aires. Fr. Arrupe was so kind because he did not say, "But you are not holy enough to become a missionary" - he was kind; he was charitable. It was the dimension of mission that gave me such great determination to be a Jesuit: to go out, to go to the missions and proclaim Jesus Christ. I believe this is a feature specific to our spirituality: to go out, to go out to always proclaim Jesus Christ, and to never stay somehow closed in our structures, which are so often transient. This is what motivated me.
