Dear Parishioners,

*Happy Easter to all our parishioners and visitors! Today, we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead! The Collect for the Easter Mass during the Day teaches us that, as Jesus conquers death with this Resurrection, he has “unlocked the path to eternity.” Today, all of creation and all of God’s creatures, especially His sons and daughters, receive a new outpouring of His divine life as we all share in the promises of the Resurrection. We have worked hard this past Lent to turn away from sin and to be more faithful to the Gospel. We have fasted, we have been more conscious of those in need, we have been more focused in our prayer. Now with Easter, the Lord delights us with a new gift of Himself, the gift of His risen life. We receive this risen life with our Easter Communion. This Communion in particular helps us to remain committed to the new and refreshed living of the Christian life that follows from a well observed Lent. The newly baptized adults at the Easter Vigil inspire us as we support them to be credible witnesses of Christ risen from the dead. I encourage you, as you kept a disciplined and faithful Lent, to consider keeping a similar Easter Time. During Easter Time, continue to come to Mass more frequently, to read the Sacred Scriptures, to spend time in the presence of the Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and to be generous in acts of charity. *Let us pray for one another this Easter Sunday and support one another in living more obvious and intentional Christian lives. Happy Easter!

The celebration of the Sacraments, especially Baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist, reveals the grace and power of the Resurrection. It is for this reason that the Church prefers that these Sacraments, especially for adults, take place during Easter Time. Four of our Elect were fully initiated—with Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist—into the Church at the great Easter Vigil. All throughout Easter Time adults who have already been baptized as non-Catholics will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church with the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist. Likewise all throughout Easter Time, adults who have been baptized as Catholics will be confirmed and receive their first Holy Communion. Our school age candidates will be confirmed next Sunday, April 23, 2017 at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass. Our school age candidates will receive their first Holy Communion on Sunday, May 7, 2017 at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass.

The annual Archdiocesan May Procession will take place here at the Basilica on Sunday, May 7, 2017 at 2:00 PM. Everyone is welcome! Plan now to participate. Also, the Cathedral Basilica will host the presentation and veneration of the relics of Padre Pio from May 6-8, 2017. More details about this Saint’s presence among us will be in future editions of the Parish Bulletin. Next Saturday, April 22, 2017, at the 5:15 PM Anticipated Mass for Sunday, the Sacrament of Marriage will take place during the Mass.

*The second collection at Mass next Sunday will be directed to the various outreach ministries of the Cathedral Parish. Thank you so very much for your generosity to the Cathedral Parish with your Easter offerings and donations for the Easter Flowers, and to the Appeal for Catholic Charities. Happy Easter,
Father Dennis Gill*

Hoy es el día que la Iglesia Católica celebra el sentido de la Fe, porque festeja el Domingo de la Resurrección de Jesús o de Pascua, cuando Cristo triunfante sobre la muerte abre las puertas del cielo. Durante la Celebración Eucarística se enciende el Cirio Pascual que permanecerá encendido hasta el día que se conmemora la Ascensión de Jesús al cielo. Esta fiesta celebra la derrota del pecado y de la muerte, con la resurrección del todo sufrimiento temporal adquiere sentido con la vida eterna. Es un día de fiesta de gozo, Cristo a Resucitado, la Tumba está vacía, la humanidad está salvada, ahora es momento de abrazar esa salvación testificando una verdadera vida Cristiana. Ewtn.com

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Vacía

Andrés nació afectado ligeramente por el síndrome de Down. Le encantaba ir a las clases de religión los domingos después de la Misa. Otros nueve niños aprendían, se reían y jugaban ahí. Andrés no era en realidad parte del grupo. Él era diferente sin haberlo escogido así y sus compañeros de clase ignoraban a Andrés la mayor parte de las veces. El primer domingo después de Pascua la maestra trajo diez huevos plásticos, le dio uno a cada niño para que encontraran afuera símbolos de vida nueva y lo pusieran dentro de su respectivo huevo. Ellos corrieron alrededor de los terrenos de la iglesia bajo el sol de primavera y trajeron sus tesoros a la clase, y la maestra abrió el primer huevo: contenía una flor bella y se oyeron muchos “¡ah!” Abrió otro y ahí había una pequeña mariposa. En el tercer huevo encontraron una hoja linda y verde. El cuarto huevo no tenía nada adentro. Los niños, típico de sus ocho años de edad, dijeron: “¡eso es estúpido! Alguien no lo hizo bien”. La maestra sintió que alguien le había dado un jalón a su blusa y miró a ver quién lo había hecho. “Es el mío”, le dijo Andrés. Los niños empezaron a decirle: “Tú nunca haces nada bien, Andrés, ahí no hay nada”. “Sí lo hice bien”, contestó Andrés, “¡la tumba está vacía!” De pronto cundió un gran silencio. Y desde ese momento Andrés empezó a ser parte del grupo. Había salido de la tumba donde lo habían puesto por ser diferente. Andrés murió el verano pasado de una infección que para la mayoría de los niños no hubiera tenido gran importancia. En la Misa de sus exequias nueve niños de ocho años junto a su maestra fueron al altar, no con flores que cubrieran la crudeza de la muerte, sino cada uno con un huevo plástico y vacío que colocaron en los escalones de la sede. ¡La tumba estaba vacía!

Disciples of Jesus Today

Easter Season (1)

More than likely, many of us have journeyed through this Lent carrying heavy personal interior burdens, and questions galore, about the future of our world. We have been forced to focus especially on our homeless sisters and brothers in many small, mid-eastern countries, victims of violence and about our own national security. These realities have brought us to our knees literally and figuratively and caused our minds and hearts to be raised to God. Perhaps these last forty (40) days were ones that took on a serious likeness to the mindset of the disciples of Jesus who were confused, confounded, saddened and burdened with carrying on His mission when He would be gone. What did it take for them to have some clarity and hope about this new way of life? What do we see them doing and how do their questions become somewhat resolved? Yes, they were living 2000 years ago, but we are in the here and now, longing for peace, and our question is a deep and nagging one which continues to linger: Is He actually gone or do we believe the Scriptures which clearly state that He did conquer death?

This profound question deserves our devout attention and now that we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord, we turn a corner in our thinking. Yes, the Scriptures do give us the answer, but we are called to a new and deeper faith, an interior belief that our Lord, the Living Christ has shown us his power to conquer death. Is there anything which He cannot do; is there any situation of which he is unaware, both in our own lives and in our world? No. St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Hebrews: “Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight....” 4:13 Prayer on such passages increases our awareness of God’s knowledge of all things. Jesus offers proof to his mother and beloved apostles and disciples: all are made aware and clearly see Him on that Holiest of days and during the 40 days that follow: He has conquered death. Will He likewise do for us, his loving disciples of today, in making our interior lives alive with hope and grace? Truly, this is his deepest desire that we too, “Have life and have it to the full.” (Jn.10:10)

These glorious fifty (50) Easter days are full of joyful surprises in the daily Scriptures. The Church offers us accounts of God’s presence, especially in the book of the Acts of the Apostles. Yes, there continues to be suffering and persecution within their lives, but also, they, Our Lord’s Disciples, gather daily for prayer and for the “Breaking of the Bread” known to us as Eucharist. In the midst of our own interior uncertainties, we are called to do as the earliest followers of Jesus did, and place our trust in God. We may resist or we may leap over the hurdles and follow Him down the narrow path. This will mean that more of our concerns are placed in Him and that the gift of Easter conversion has taken root in our hearts. Peace is an outward sign of such grace. May this Easter Peace be yours!

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

EMPTY

Andrew was born with mild Down Syndrome. He loved to go to religion class on Sunday. His classmates mostly ignored him. On the Sunday after Easter the teacher gave out plastic eggs, one to each child, and they went outside to find symbols of new life to put in the eggs. Back indoors the teacher opened the first egg: there was a beautiful flower. In the second was a butterfly and in the third a green leaf. The fourth was empty. The children said, "Somebody did it wrong." "It's mine," Andrew said. "I did do it right! The tomb is empty!" There was sudden silence. From that time on, Andrew became a part of the group, set free from the tomb of his difference. Andrew died last summer. During his funeral Mass, nine eight-year old children, together with their teacher, marched up to the altar, not with flowers to cover over the stark reality of death, but with an empty, old pantyhose egg, and placed it on the altar steps. The tomb is empty!
