Dear Parishioners,

*Everything seems a bit more relaxed with summer. I suppose this is mainly due to the nicer weather and the increased opportunities to have some vacation time from our regular routines. I propose to you that summer also provides us with some additional time to focus on our spiritual lives, to invest in our relationship with Christ and to reflect on our attentiveness to those in need. This past Sunday, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), the Archbishop mentioned something in his homily at the 6:30 PM Sunday Mass and I read the same thing in reports of other homilies for the occasion that bears repeating. Our participation in Sunday Mass, each Sunday, is the minimal requirement of living a truly Christian life and it cannot end there. The Christian life begins with our union with Christ in his offering on the cross in the Eucharist but then needs to be fostered and nourished in so many other ways. What happens after Mass is what flames the grace shared with us, keeps us united to Christ and encourages our witness and service to others.*

So, this summer consider some opportunities to enrich your Christian life. You might build some periods of silence into your day to clear your mind and be present to the Lord. Make sure that you pray in the morning and the evening. Pray the Holy Rosary. Read the life of a saint or about the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Spend some time before the Most Blessed Sacrament in church or at least make a visit to the Most Blessed Sacrament on occasion. Go to Confession more frequently. Go to Mass during the week as well as on Sunday. Visit your neighbors. Volunteer in any number of places where people need your assistance. Our Christian lives will not mature without some interest and investment on our part. God has already done his part and will not fail to continue to love us and share his life with us. We need to do our part and make a return to the Lord and encourage one another to do so.

Father Andres Guterrez, who has visited us several times now and is a friend of the Cathedral Parish, will be with us again next Sunday. Father works in the mission of Saint Martin de Porres Parish in Cusco, Peru. The past generosity of our Cathedral Parish has brought great relief to the people of Saint Martin de Porres, especially as they experience a poverty which is unknown to many of us. The second collection at Mass next Sunday will be for Father's mission and the people he serves.

Our Keys and Sword Event 2018 is less than two weeks away. We have nearly sold out with 290 of our 300 tickets purchased for the event. Please consider supporting this event with a donation, if you have not done so already. Learn more about this significant parish event on-line at <http://cathedralphila.org/keys/>.

Thank you so very much for all of your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish in so many ways and to the annual Catholic Charities Appeal.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill

Low-Gluten Hosts

For Catholics who have been diagnosed with Celiac Disease, or any similar gluten intolerance, we have the availability of low-gluten altar breads (hosts) that can be prepared for consecration. These hosts, produced by the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in Clyde, Missouri, have been tested to contain less than .001% (10ppm) gluten. In this way, they are both approved for use at Holy Mass and are safe for almost all people who have a gluten intolerance. Additionally, both in storage and throughout the celebration of Mass, these hosts are kept separate, for the sake of those who have more extreme sensitivity to gluten.

To request that a low-gluten host be prepared for you, please come to the sacristy before Mass and make this known to the priest and/or sacristan, who will offer further instructions.

BAPTISM PREPARATION SESSION

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism is the doorway to the Christian life and to all the other Sacraments. As such, preparation of the parents and for the Baptism itself deserve very special attention. The celebration of Baptism at the Cathedral Parish takes place on the first Sunday of each month at 12:30 PM after the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass. Everyone is welcome. The celebration will be carried out with liturgical music and with a great sense of hospitality.

A Baptism Preparation Session takes place on the third Sunday of each month in anticipation of the celebration of the Sacrament. Parents in the Cathedral Parish are obligated to participate. The session is open to all of our neighbor parishes and to godparents as well. Parents are encouraged to participate during pregnancy, if at all possible. Please call the Parish Office - 215-561-1313 - to register for the Baptism Preparation Session.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD

FAMILIA

De esta manera se expresó Felipe durante un retiro parroquial: “Nací dentro de una familia muy unida y de joven siempre me molestó mucho la historia que nos relata el Evangelio de hoy. Ahí está Jesús, en medio de una muchedumbre bastante hostil. Algunos dicen que él se volvió loco, otros que está poseído de Satanás. Entonces llega su madre acompañada de otros miembros de la familia y preguntan por él. Mi estatura era pequeña de niño y a menudo otros niños busca pleitos y pendenciosos me empujaban en la escuela. Si mi familia hubiera aparecido en alguno de esos momentos yo hubiera pensado: ‘Aquí están los que me aman y vienen a rescatarme’. Pero Jesús no hace eso, sino dice que su familia son los que están allí con él y que hacen la voluntad de Dios. Me tomó muchos años darme cuenta que no había contradicción en sus palabras. Jesús no estaba rechazando a su familia sino dándole a la palabra ‘familia’ un significado mucho mayor. Cuando nosotros nos mudamos a esta ciudad no conocíamos a nadie, pero nos hicimos miembros de esta parroquia. Nos establecimos aquí, pero a principios no conocíamos a mucha gente. Linda y yo nos unimos al grupo de estudio bíblico de los jueves en la noche; nos gustó mucho e hicimos amistades. Todo cambió cuando nuestro hijo Jonatán contrajo leucemia. Toda nuestra familia estaba demasiado lejos para ayudarnos, aunque a veces podían hacer visitas breves y esporádicas. El grupo de estudio bíblico se convirtió en nuestra familia. Nos preparaban comidas, rezaban con nosotros, cuidaban de Jonatán para que Linda y yo pudiéramos descansar un poco, limpiaban nuestra casa, arreglaban el jardín y aún pagaron algunas de nuestras cuentas. Nosotros amamos a nuestra familia sanguínea como siempre, pero el amor de Cristo inspiró a estas otras personas para que fueran una extensión de nuestra propia familia y nos acompañaron en nuestros momentos de más necesidad. Estas personas maravillosas no son sólo nuestros amigos, sino que verdaderamente son nuestros hermanos y hermanas, tal como lo dijo Jesús”.

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

FAMILY

"I grew up in a very close-knit family," said Phil at a parish retreat, "and when I was young the story in today's Gospel reading always bothered me. There's Jesus in the middle of a pretty hostile crowd. Some are saying he's lost his mind, others that he's possessed by Satan. Then his mother and some other family members show up asking for him. I wasn't very big as a kid and I often got pushed around by bullies at school. If my family had shown up I would have thought, 'Here are the people I love who've come to rescue me.' But Jesus says no, here is my family—the people around me who are doing God's will. It took me years to realize that there's absolutely no contradiction here. Jesus was not rejecting his family but giving the word 'family' a much wider meaning. When we moved to this town we knew no one, but we joined this parish. We settled in, but we didn't get to know many people at first. Then Linda and I joined the Thursday night Bible study group, and we enjoyed it and made friends. Everything changed when our son Jonathan got leukemia. All our family were way too far away to help us, although they managed some quick visits. The Bible study group became our family. They fixed meals, prayed with us, sat with Jonathan so Linda and I could have a little time out, cleaned the house, mowed the grass, and even paid a few of our bills. We love our birth family as always, but Christ's love empowered an extended family to be there in our greatest time of need. These wonderful people are not simply our friends, they truly are our brothers and sisters, just as Jesus said."
