Dear Parishioners,

Our Cathedral Parish Keys and Sword Event 2018 is less than two weeks away and we have sold all three hundred tickets for the dinner on July 29, 2018. I am so happy about this and am grateful for the large number of parishioners who will be present for the dinner. The Keys and Sword Event extends beyond the Cathedral Parish to the whole of the Archdiocese as a way of creating a culture of financial support for the Cathedral Basilica. As the Mother Church, the Cathedral Basilica serves the Archbishop, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the Cathedral Parish, and also is home to everyone. It is necessary, therefore, to engage as many as possible to support and to provide financially for the Cathedral Basilica for many years into the future. It is still possible to make a donation to the Keys and Sword Event 2018 on-line at <http://cathedralphila.org/keys/>.

Today we observe Father's Day. As Catholics, today is an occasion to pray for our fathers, living or dead, during the celebration of Holy Mass. The vocation of fatherhood deserves renewed attention and respect. More and more studies indicate the powerful influence of a father on his children, especially when it comes to living the Faith. For a variety of reasons, in more recent times fatherhood has been diminished. It needs to be relaunched with regard for its dignity and purpose in the family and in society. So today as we pray for our fathers, let us also encourage fathers in their role and support them in their vocation to lead their children to Christ. Happy Father's Day to all fathers!

The next two Sundays are special liturgical celebrations. Next Sunday, June 24, 2018 is the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, which replaces the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time throughout the Church. On Sunday, July 1, 2018, as the Cathedral Parish we will observe the transferred Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul Apostles at all the Masses. On our actual feast day, June 29, 2018, the 12:05 PM Mass will be a sung Mass in the Basilica. Saturday, June 30, 2018, is the anniversary of Dedication of the Cathedral, and so the 12:05 PM Mass will also be in the Basilica. Let us turn to these great saints and ask their heavenly help to live like them in following our Lord Jesus.

The location of our Cathedral Basilica and Chapel in the heart of Center City allows it be a place of refuge for the homeless throughout the day. We have a Christian duty to see the homeless men and women who spend time during the day in the Basilica and Chapel as our brothers and sisters in the Lord. At the same time, issues of safety and respect are also of equal concern. If you see any behavior that is not acceptable, please notify one of the priests or sacristans immediately. Pan handling in the church is forbidden and I ask you not to participate in this. Also, please be mindful not to leave your personal belongings behind in the pew at any time.

The second collection at Mass next Sunday will be the annual Peter's Pence Collection for the support of the Holy See. Thank you so very much for all of your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish in so many ways, and to the annual Catholic Charities Appeal.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill

FIRST FRIDAY EXPOSITION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

Adoración Eucarística el primer viernes del mes

Friday, July 6, 2018
11:00 AM to 12:00 PM
Cathedral Chapel

The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration before the 12:05 PM Mass.
*Please come to adore the Lord!

The Sacrament of Penance will be available on the First Friday of each month, beginning at 11 AM

El Santísimo Sacramento será expuesto para adoración antes de la Misa de las 12:05 pm el primer viernes de cada mes a partir de las 11:00 am en la Capilla de la Catedral. Confesiones en inglés a las 11am. Por favor ven a adorar al Señor

"What wonderful majesty! What stupendous condescension! O sublime humility! That the Lord of the whole universe, God and the Son of God, should humble Himself like this under the form of a little bread, for our salvation"

St. Angela of Foligno

Communion for the Sick

The priests of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul are anxious to serve the spiritual needs of their Catholic brothers and sisters who live in Residences such as Atria, Kennedy House, Penn Center House, Riverside Presbyterian, Watermark, Spring Garden Towers, and anyone else who may be confined to their homes. Therefore, if you are aware of anyone who would like a priest to visit and administer the Sacrament of Penance, the Sacrament of the Sick, and Holy Communion, please let us know. There is no better way that we can emulate Jesus Christ than by sharing his love with all whom he places in our paths, especially the sick and the aged who long for his healing presence.

Please pass the above requested information on to us by calling the Parish Office at 215-561-1313. Be assured of the love, concern, and prayers of your priests at the Cathedral, and in your goodness, pray for us that we may always be channels of Christ's love and peace to others. God bless you always and in all ways.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD

SIEMBRA LA SEMILLA

Mostaza. ¿Qué te trae esta palabra a la mente? Probablemente una salsa espesa, amarilla, condimentada y envasada. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús se refiere a otra clase de mostaza. Esta mostaza negra no se cultivaba en tiempos de Jesús sino que era considerada una maleza. Igual que todas las variedades de mostaza, la planta de mostaza negra sale de una pequeñísima semilla que no tiene más de dos milímetros de diámetro. Sin embargo, si se dan las condiciones necesarias, puede crecer hasta una altura de nueve pies; ciertamente tan grande como para que los pájaros se posen y hagan sus nidos. Jesús dice que el reino de Dios es como el árbol de mostaza, que comienza al sembrar la semilla más pequeña en la tierra. El sol y la lluvia ponen su parte, y la planta brota ¡y llega a crecer tanto como un árbol! Lo mismo sucede con nuestro discipulado y nuestra corresponsabilidad cristiana. Si comenzamos a confiar en Dios, aunque sea de una manera muy pequeña, nos llevará a un mayor compromiso en el discipulado. Nosotros alimentamos nuestra espiritualidad mediante la oración, los sacramentos, el estudio de la Biblia y las clases de adultos, todo lo cual nos lleva a una fe más fuerte. A la misma vez eso nos ayuda a vivir con menos temor y egoísmo. La manera de usar nuestro tiempo libre, nuestras habilidades y destrezas, y nuestros recursos financieros cambiará drásticamente. Éstos son los frutos de nuestro discipulado los cuales debemos compartir con los demás. Una y otra vez las personas que sabemos han hecho un compromiso de ser más fieles a su discipulado nos dicen que se vuelven más generosas y responsables con todo lo que Dios les ha dado. Mientras más dan más quieren dar. Han encontrado que cuando uno no se deja aprisionar por sus propios bienes ni se amarra a sí mismo las bendiciones no faltan. Esto no quiere decir que se les resuelvan todos los problemas ni que se vuelvan ricos de pronto, pero sí se adquiere un sentido más profundo de la presencia de Dios y una verdadera paz del corazón.

La Corresponsabilidad Viva Ahora

Si no has hecho un compromiso de corresponsabilidad cristiana en tu vida, ¿por qué no empezar ahora mismo? Comienza poco a poco, pero haz tu compromiso y persevera. Dedícales a otras personas parte de tu tiempo libre. Ofrece tus habilidades a tu parroquia o a una obra caritativa. Dale dinero a tu parroquia regularmente y haz donaciones a las causas buenas de tu predilección.

ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

MISSIONARY OF Mercy

In his Apostolic letter Misericordia et misera, Pope Francis extended the faculties of the specially-appointed priests, known as Missionaries of Mercy, beyond the Jubilee Year of Mercy as “a concrete sign that the grace of the Jubilee remains alive and effective the world over” (MM 9). Along with the mandate to “hear confessions, and preach on behalf of and promote the Sacrament of Reconciliation,” the Holy Father has granted these Missionaries the authority to pardon certain sins reserved to the Holy See.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia rejoices to have one of her own priests, Msgr. George Majoros, appointed to this ministry. To learn more about our Archdiocesan Missionary of Mercy, his ministry and availability, visit the webpage:

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

SOW THE SEED

Mustard. What does the word bring to your mind? Probably a thick, yellow, spicy sauce in a jar. In today's Gospel Jesus talks about another kind of mustard. This black mustard plant was not cultivated in Jesus' time and was considered a weed. Like all varieties of mustard, the black mustard plant grows from a very tiny seed, no bigger than two millimeters in diameter. Yet, given the right conditions, it can grow up to nine feet tall—certainly tall enough for birds to perch and nest in. Jesus says that the reign of God is like the mustard plant. It starts with the tiniest of seeds in the ground. Sun and rain do their work and a large plant shoots up, almost as big as a tree! So it is with our discipleship and our stewardship. If we start in even the smallest way to trust in God, that leads to more commitment in our discipleship. We nurture our spiritual growth through prayer, the sacraments, Bible study, and adult classes, which leads to a stronger faith. That in turn helps us to live less fearfully and selfishly. The use of our spare time, personal skills and abilities, and financial resources takes on a different meaning. These are the fruits of our discipleship to share with others. Time and time again, those among us who have made their commitment to a more faithful discipleship tell us they become more generous stewards of what God has given them. The more they give the more they want to give. They have found that when you cease to holding on tightly to yourself and your possessions, more blessings come your way—not solutions to all problems or sudden riches, but a much deeper sense of God's presence and true peace of heart.

Living Stewardship Now

If you are not committed to a stewardship way of life, why not start right now? Begin small, but make your commitments and persevere with them. Give some of your free time to other people. Offer your skills to your parish or a charity. Give money to your parish regularly, and make donations to good causes you choose.
