Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Lord is teaching us again this Sunday with a parable, a story with many layers of meaning and multiple messages. This Sunday’s Gospel (see Matthew 26: 1-16a) speaks to the generosity of God. Many of us have expectations of God on our terms, on how we measure things. Today’s Gospel—with the laborers, regardless of how long they worked, all receiving the same daily wage—reminds us that God’s terms matter. In relationship to all of us, God is perfectly equal in loving us and providing for us. His Son suffered and died for each of us equally. We all have the equal promise of heaven. This radical justice on the part of God with all of us does not suggest we are minimal in our response to God’s love and gifts. Rather, we too must be just in our response to God. We are to give to him our very selves—all that we have and all that we are—all the time. This is what God expects of us. This is the witness and example of his divine Son on the cross, of Mary and the Saints. “Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last (Matthew 16a).”

The Parish Fall Collection (formerly known as the Block Collection) is upon us. Information about this annual collection and our parish financial status will be sent to your homes in the coming days. Our weekly expenses run about 20,000 dollars even during the pandemic. As you can see from the published data on our Sunday collections that the monies collected provide insufficient income to meet the weekly expenses. Our weekly income is typically supplemented from other sources—the shrine offerings, wedding fees, and the Keys and Sword—but all of these additional sources are quite reduced with the pandemic. We count on this Parish Fall Collection to help us meet our operational expenses. Each parishioner is asked to so what they can at this time to contribute to the Parish Fall Collection. I thank you in advance for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. On Sunday, October 4, 2020, I will speak at all the Mass on our financial status and our need to support our Cathedral Parish.

October is Respect Life Month in the United States. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will anticipate Respect Life Month with a Holy Hour at 5:30 PM and Mass at 6:30 PM on Sunday, September 27, 2020. Archbishop Nelson Perez will be the celebrant and homilist for the Mass. There are several ways to observe Respect Life Month. Perhaps the most significant way is learn more about the life issues and to grasp more fully our Catholic commitment to do all we can to protect life from the first moment of conception until natural death. Another way to observe this month is to pray for the intention of respect for human life. Since October is also the month of the Holy Rosary, I suggest that we pray the Holy Rosary throughout this month with an intention for respect for human life. The Holy Rosary can be prayed in a variety of settings—at home, on the way to work, during a walk. Praying the Holy Rosary before or after Mass is also a great setting.

Next Sunday, the second collection will be directed to the religious education programs in the Cathedral Parish. Thank you for your support of our Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see http://cathedralphila.org/donate/. Thank you so very much for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill,
Rector

CATECHETICAL SESSION
FOR ADULTS
-Adult faith formation-

The Blessed Trinity:
God the Father

Thursday, September 24, 2020, 7:00 PM
Neumann Room
The weekly catechetical session is primarily for the adults among us who are preparing to receive the Easter Sacraments. However, anyone interested in the topic for better understanding and faith formation is most welcome to attend. Anyone, especially our parishioners, seeking more information on the reception of the Sacraments or assisting as a sponsor, please call the Parish Office 215-561-1313 or email Edward Specht at cathedralreligiouseducation@gmail.com

Today’s Readings
Reading I: Isaiah 55: 6-9
These verses comprise the conclusion of the so-called “Book of Comfort” in Isaiah. We are told to seek the Lord outside of the sanctuary. God is so completely different from us, that it is unwise to ascribe motives or methods to Him that we might have. He is hidden, yet He is also close to us.

Reading II: Philippians 1: 20c-24, 27a
Paul writes that through his baptism he has “died” as it were to his former life, and now lives an existence completely taken over by Christ.

The Gospel: Matthew 20: 1-16a
The parable we hear is all about God’s generosity, and not about labor rights. His goodness comes to the fore in His love for the most needy.

Misa Televisada en Español
En UNIVISIÓN 65 - Todos los domingos a las 6:30 AM
La Santa Misa Grabada en línea

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el vigésimo quinto domingo del tiempo ordinario. El Señor nos vuelve a enseñar este domingo con una parábola, una historia con muchas capas de significado y múltiples mensajes. El evangelio de este domingo (ver Mateo 26: 1-16a) habla de la generosidad de Dios. Muchos de nosotros tenemos expectativas de Dios en nuestros términos, en cómo medimos las cosas. El Evangelio de hoy, con los obreros, independientemente de cuánto tiempo hayan trabajado, todos recibiendo el mismo salario diario, nos recuerda que los términos de Dios son importantes. En relación con todos nosotros, Dios es perfectamente igual en amamos y proveer para nosotros. Su Hijo sufrió y murió por cada uno de nosotros por igual. Todos tenemos la misma promesa del cielo. Esta justicia radical de parte de Dios con todos nosotros no sugiere que estamos haciendo lo suficiente en nuestra respuesta al amor y los dones de Dios. Más bien, nosotros también debemos ser justos en nuestra respuesta a Dios. Debemos entregarle nuestro mismo yo, todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos, todo el tiempo. Eso es lo que Dios espera de nosotros. Este es el testimonio y ejemplo de su divino Hijo en la cruz, de María y de los santos. “Por tanto, los últimos serán los primeros y los primeros serán los últimos (Mateo 16a)”.

La colección de otoño de la parroquia (anteriormente conocida como Block Collection) está sobre nosotros. La información sobre esta colección anual y el estado financiero de nuestra parroquia se enviará a sus hogares en los próximos días. Nuestros gastos semanales rondan los 20.000 dólares incluso durante la pandemia. Como puede ver en los datos publicados sobre nuestras colecciones domingueriales, el dinero recolectado proporciona ingresos insuficientes para cubrir los gastos semanales. Nuestros ingresos semanales generalmente se complementan con otras fuentes: las ofrendas del santuario, las tarifas de la boda y Keys and Sword (las Llaves y la Espada), pero todas estas fuentes adicionales se han reducido bastante durante la pandemia. Contamos con esta Colecta Parroquial de Otoño para ayudarnos a cubrir nuestros gastos operativos. Se le pide a cada feligrés que haga lo que pueda en este momento para contribuir a la Colección Parroquial de Otoño. Les agradezco de antemano su bondad y generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral. El domingo 4 de octubre de 2020, hablaré en toda la misa sobre nuestro estado financiero y nuestra necesidad de apoyar a nuestra parroquia de la catedral.

Octubre es el Mes del Respeto a la Vida en los Estados Unidos. La Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia anticipará el Mes del Respeto a la Vida con una Hora Santa a las 5:30 p.m. y la Misa a las 6:30 p.m. el domingo 27 de septiembre de 2020. El Arzobispo Nelson Pérez será el celebrante y homilista de la Misa. Hay varias maneras para observar el Mes del Respeto a la Vida. Quizás la forma más significativa es aprender más sobre los problemas de la vida y comprender más plenamente nuestro compromiso católico de hacer todo lo posible para proteger la vida desde el primer momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Otra forma de observar este mes es rezar por la intención de respetar la vida humana. Dado que octubre es también el mes del Santo Rosario, sugiero que recemos el Santo Rosario durante este mes con la intención de respetar la vida humana. Dado que octubre es también el mes del Santo Rosario, sugiero que recemos el Santo Rosario durante este mes con la intención de respetar la vida humana. El Santo Rosario se puede rezar en una variedad de entornos: en casa, de camino al trabajo, durante una caminata. Rezar el Santo Rosario antes o después de la Misa también es un gran escenario.

El próximo domingo, la segunda colecta irá dirigida a los programas de educación religiosa en la Parroquia Catedral. Gracias por su apoyo a nuestra Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas domingueriales a la Oficina Parroquial de la Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Consulte http://cathedralphila.org/donate/. Muchas gracias por su bondad y generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral.

Dios te bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill, Rector

Communion for the Sick
The priests of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul are anxious to serve the spiritual needs of their Catholic brothers and sisters who live in Residences such as Atria, Kennedy House, Penn Center House, Riverside Presbyterian, Watermark, Spring Garden Towers, and anyone else who may be confined to their homes. Therefore, if you are aware of anyone who would like a priest to visit and administer the Sacrament of Penance, the Sacrament of the Sick, and Holy Communion, please let us know. There is no better way that we can emulate Jesus Christ than by sharing his love with all whom he places in our paths, especially the sick and the aged who long for his healing presence.

Please pass the above requested information on to us by calling the Parish Office at 215-561-1313. Be assured of the love, concern, and prayers of your priests at the Cathedral, and in your goodness, pray for us that we may always be channels of Christ’s love and peace to others.
