Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Jesus is a wonderful teacher. The parables we have been hearing over the past few weeks have guided us to see the importance of following Jesus and living as members of his Kingdom on his terms and not our terms. Today, the Lord makes use of a conversation asking those listening for their opinion. In this Sunday's Gospel (see Matthew 21: 28-32), with the example of the two sons, one who delays upon following his father's request but in the end does it and the other who says yes but doesn't do it, we learn several lessons. What matters most to the Lord is fidelity to his saving will for us. Sometimes our response is delayed. In the end, our eventual accepting response is the desire of our heavenly Father as we follow the path of his Son. It is rather easy to judge, externally that some may not be following the will of God, yet this is matter for the Lord alone. Perhaps, a final lesson is that following the will of God requires doing so with mind, heart and soul. May we please the Lord with renewed efforts to listen carefully to his Word and follow with greater fidelity his will.

October begins Respect Life Month, and next Sunday is Respect Life Sunday. While not everyone can participate in public or political efforts to promote respect for human life from conception to natural death, all of us can pray for this intention. Respect Life Month calls us to pray for the dignity of every human life, especially for its legal protection in our land. This intention will be especially remembered in the Sunday Universal Prayer throughout October.

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. The Memorial of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary is Wednesday, October 7, 2026. I encourage all of you to pray the Holy Rosary as frequently as possible, perhaps every day during the month of October. Grandparents, I encourage you to invite your grandchildren to pray the Holy Rosary with you.

This Thursday, October 1, we commemorate the anniversary of the canonization of Saint Katharine Drexel, who was canonized by Pope Saint John Paul II on October 1, 2000, in Saint Peter's Square in Rome. St. Katharine reminds us of our duty to bring the Gospel to those on the margins and to work for justice and equality. May we turn to her in prayer and ask her to inspire us to live holy lives and serve others. Saint Katharine Drexel, pray for us!

Next Saturday evening, October 3, at the 5:15 PM Anticipated Mass, we will celebrate the Rite for Entrance into the Catechumenate. Several unbaptized adults in our community have begun their formation in the Catholic Faith and expressed their desire to know and follow the Lord more fully and to receive the Sacraments of Christian Initiation at Easter. Through this Rite, they publicly declare their intention to continue their journey of faith and conversion. Please keep them in your prayers.

Thank you to our parishioners and visitors for your generosity to the Cathedral Parish. Sunday offerings may be mailed to the Cathedral Parish Office or given electronically at <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>.

God bless you! Father Dennis Gill, Rector

HAVING MASSES OFFERED

One of the spiritual works of mercy is to “pray for the living and the dead”. We pray for the living for many reasons: healing, conversion, success, strength, etc. We pray for the deceased so that they may be forgiven of their sins and enter eternal life.

The best prayer that we have, for any person or for any reason, is the Mass. It’s always been a good spiritual work of mercy to have Mass offered for a person, especially the deceased.

There are many Masses, both weekdays and Sundays, that are open and available in our Mass book. If you are interested in having a Mass offered for someone, please stop by our receptionist office Monday-Friday 9:00AM-4:00PM. Each Mass is a $10 stipend.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Hoy celebramos el vigésimo sexto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Jesús es un maestro maravilloso. Las parábolas que hemos escuchado en las últimas semanas nos han guiado a comprender la importancia de seguir a Jesús y vivir como miembros de su reino bajo sus condiciones, y no las nuestras. Hoy, el Señor utiliza una conversación para pedir la opinión de quienes le escuchan. En el evangelio de este domingo (véase Mateo 21, 28-32), a través del ejemplo de los dos hijos - uno que demora en cumplir la petición de su padre pero finalmente lo hace, y el otro que dice que sí pero no lo hace - aprendemos varias lecciones. Lo que más le importa al Señor es la fidelidad a su voluntad salvadora para nosotros. A veces nuestra respuesta se demora; sin embargo, al final, nuestra aceptación tardía es lo que desea nuestro Padre celestial mientras recorremos el camino de su Hijo. Es fácil juzgar externamente a quienes parecen no seguir la voluntad de Dios, pero este es un asunto que compete únicamente al Señor. Quizás una lección final sea que seguir la voluntad de Dios requiere hacerlo con la mente, el corazón y el alma. Que podamos agradar al Señor renovando nuestros esfuerzos por escuchar atentamente su Palabra y seguir su voluntad con mayor fidelidad.

Octubre marca el inicio del Mes del Respeto a la Vida, y el próximo domingo es el Domingo del Respeto a la Vida. Si bien no todos pueden participar en iniciativas públicas o políticas para promover el respeto a la vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural, todos podemos orar por esta intención. El Mes del Respeto a la Vida nos invita a orar por la dignidad de toda vida humana, especialmente por su protección legal en nuestra tierra. Esta intención se tendrá presente de manera especial en la Oración Universal de los domingos a lo largo de todo el mes de octubre.

Octubre es el mes del Santo Rosario. La memoria de Nuestra Señora del Santo Rosario se celebra el miércoles 7 de octubre de 2026. Los animo a todos a rezar el Santo Rosario con la mayor frecuencia posible, tal vez todos los días durante el mes de octubre. Abuelos, los animo a invitar a sus nietos a rezar el Santo Rosario con ustedes.

Este jueves 1 de octubre conmemoramos el aniversario de la canonización de Santa Katharine Drexel, quien fue canonizada por el Papa San Juan Pablo II el 1 de octubre de 2000 en la Plaza de San Pedro, en Roma. Santa Katharine nos recuerda nuestro deber de llevar el Evangelio a quienes viven en los márgenes de la sociedad y de trabajar por la justicia y la igualdad. Recurramos a ella en oración y pidámosle que nos inspire a vivir vidas santas y a servir a los demás. ¡Santa Katharine Drexel, ruega por nosotros!

El próximo sábado por la tarde, 3 de octubre, durante la Misa anticipada de las 5:15 PM, celebraremos el Rito de Entrada al Catecumenado. Varios adultos no bautizados de nuestra comunidad han comenzado su formación en la fe católica y han expresado su deseo de conocer y seguir al Señor más plenamente, así como de recibir los sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana en la Pascua. A través de este rito, declaran públicamente su intención de continuar su camino de fe y conversión. Por favor, ténganlos presentes en sus oraciones.

Gracias a nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su generosidad con la parroquia de la Catedral. Las ofrendas dominicales pueden enviarse por correo a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o realizarse electrónicamente en <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Que Dios los bendiga! Padre Dennis Gill, Rector

What to Do When a Friend is Considering Abortion

Read the full version at respectlife.org/l-o-v-e.

When a woman is facing a difficult pregnancy, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision-making. How do we respond in a loving way that is life-affirming for both her and her baby? First, prioritize listening over speaking. Ask her about her feelings, thoughts, values, beliefs, and wants. When her story is fully shared, it is your turn to provide factual information, in a loving and caring way. Encourage her. Help her set goals that extend beyond her due date to help her see life beyond her pregnancy. Reassure her that she is not alone, and provide practical support. Pray with her, offering Christ's love at a crucial life-saving and life-defining moment.
