Repeat after the Cantor and following each verse

I am the vine and you are the branch-es. Who - ev-er re-mains in me and I in him, will bear much fruit, al - le lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

1. O shepherd of Israel, here us, you who lead Joseph like a flock: enthroned on the cherubim shine forth.
2. O God, bring us back; Let your face shine upon us and we shall be saved. How long, O Lord, God of hosts, will you be angry at the prayer of your people.
3. You brought back a vine our of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it. Before it you cleared the ground; it took root and filled the land.
4. The mountains are covered with its shadow, the cedars of God with its boughs. It stretched out branches to the sea; to the river it stretched out its shoots.
5. Then why have they broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by the way. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field.
6. O God of hosts, turn again we implore: look down from heaven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted.
7. May your hand be on the one at your right hand, the son of man you have confirmed as your own. And we shall never forsake you again; give us life that we may call upon your name.

HYMN LOVE ONE ANOTHER JAMES J. CHEPPONIS

Love one an - oth - er, for love is of God.

Love one an - oth - er, for God is love.

1. God loved the world so much he sent us his only son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
2. Since God has given his love to us, therefore let us love one another. If we love one another, God will love us, and live in us in perfect love.
3. Everyone who loves is begotten of God and knows him as the Father. But they who do not love do not know God, for God is love.
4. Let not your hearts be troubled, for love has no room for fear. In love all fear is forgotten, for God is here with us.
5. God is love, and they who abide in love, abide in God, and God in them.
