1. Praise, you servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the name of the Lord both now and forever.
2. High above all nations is the Lord; above the heavens is his glory.
Who is like the Lord, our God, who is enthroned on high and looks upon the heavens and the earth below?
3. He raises up the lowly from the dust; from the dunghill he lifts up the poor to seat them with princes, with the princes of his own people.

from "Vesperae solennes de confessore", K 339 1756-1791
CATHEDRAL BASILICA CHOIR
-Sung in Latin, English Translations-

Praise the Lord, ye servants: O praise the Name of the Lord.
Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.
The Lord's Name is praised: from the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same.
The Lord is high above all heathen: and his glory above the heavens.
Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high:
and yet humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth?
He taketh up the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poor out of the mire;
That he may set him with the princes: even with the princes of his people.
He maketh the barren woman to keep house: and to be a joyful mother of children.
