Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time! In the Holy Gospel for this Sunday (see Mark 9: 30-37) Jesus continues to make known to his disciples his pending death and resurrection. The disciples are still uncertain as to what this means and instead argue about an unrelated topic. They wanted to know who was the greatest. In a masterful way—and using the example of a little child—Jesus explains that the real issue is not who is the greatest but who is the least. The child represents anything but greatness. The child represents dependency, someone in need, someone who needs the care of another. When our focus is on someone other than ourselves, it is then possible to focus on God and all God does for us. It is possible to see clearly how much our Father loves us in sending his Son to die for us for our salvation and redemption. May our eyes always be on the Lord! In this way, our eyes turn to those around us first before ourselves.

Please see the insert in the parish bulletin today about the nominations and elections for the Parish Pastoral Council. Please vote in this election! The Parish Pastoral Council is a vital organ in our Cathedral Parish and assists me in many ways as the pastor. In fact, the Parish Pastoral Council is presently engaged in the formation of a Pastoral Plan for the Cathedral Parish. We are proposing goals for our parish life. If any parishioner would like to identify areas of parish life that need attention—especially related to our Parish Mission Statement found on the front cover of the parish bulletin—please send me your suggestion to me.

Today, the Archdiocese honors those in the Consecrated Life celebrating anniversaries of religious profession at the 11:00 AM Mass. These religious priests, Brothers and Sisters represent together thousands of years of living the evangelical counsels of chastity, poverty and obedience in the service of God and his Church. Let us thank God for those in the Consecrated Life and how so many have influenced our lives. Let us ask the Lord that he urgently provide for more numerous vocations to the Consecrated Life in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. We are so grateful in our Cathedral Parish for the presence and ministry of five Sisters—four Religious Sisters of Mercy and a Parish Visitor of Mary Immaculate.

Next Sunday, September 26, 2021, the Archbishop will celebrate the 11:00 AM Mass. This Mass begins the observance of Respect Life Month all throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Please see elsewhere in the parish bulletin the many ways to observe Respect Life Month at the Cathedral Parish and throughout the Archdiocese.

Next Sunday, the second collection will be directed to the religious education programs of the Cathedral Parish, especially for the school age children. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill, Rector

PRAYER | PARTICIPATION | GENEROSITY

As our children begin a new school year, may they be joy-filled and confident! May they learn to love and turn to you, dear God, for help and guidance in their lives. Grant our students the courage to find their purposes, to seek your will in everything that they do, and to love others as you love us. Give them the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of you, dear God!

We pray this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Parents, thank you for talking with your children about the charitable gifts your family makes to our Cathedral parish so that they too will live generously as you have taught them.

St. Joseph, pray for us!

And let us remember to pray for each other always!

Have an Awesome School Year!

Your generosity was:

Regular	$ 4,641
Special	1,106 (for Poor and Needy in Cathedral Vicinity)
Total	$ 5,747

We hope that your generosity will exceed $9,000 this week. Thank you!

Please consider a gift to support the good works of our Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul.

- You are invited to become a member of our parish family and take part in our ministries, programs, events, and worship. Please speak with Father Gill, Father Biedrzycki, Deacon Burgos or Sr. Eleanor McCann after any Sunday Mass and one of them can help you register
- Planned Gifts – call and leave a message for Rose at 215-561-1313, so she may discuss with you long-term ways that may be best for you such as annuities, life insurance, stock, estate planning and memorial gifts

REFLEXIÓN DEL RECTOR

Estimados feligreses,

¡Hoy es el vigésimo quinto domingo del tiempo ordinario! En el santo evangelio para este domingo (ver Marcos 9: 30-37) Jesús continúa dando a conocer a sus discípulos su pendiente muerte y resurrección. Los discípulos aún no están seguros de lo que esto significa y, en cambio, discuten sobre un tema no relacionado. Querían saber quién era el más grande. De manera magistral, y usando el ejemplo de un niño pequeño, Jesús explica que la verdadera cuestión no es quién es el más grande sino quién es el menor. El niño representa cualquier cosa menos grandeza. El niño representa la dependencia, alguien necesitado, alguien que necesita el cuidado de otro. Cuando nos enfocamos en alguien que no sea nosotros mismos, entonces es posible enfocarnos en Dios y en todo lo que Dios hace por nosotros. Es posible ver claramente cuánto nos ama nuestro Padre al enviar a su Hijo a morir por nosotros por nuestra salvación y redención. ¡Que nuestros ojos estén siempre puestos en el Señor! De esta manera, nuestros ojos se dirigen primero a los que nos rodean antes que a nosotros mismos.

Por favor, vea el inserto en el boletín parroquial de hoy sobre las nominaciones y elecciones para el Consejo Pastoral Parroquial. ¡Vota en esta elección! El Consejo Pastoral Parroquial es un órgano vital en nuestra Parroquia Catedral y me ayuda de muchas maneras como párroco. De hecho, el Consejo Pastoral Parroquial está actualmente comprometido en la formación de un Plan Pastoral para la Parroquia Catedral. Estamos proponiendo metas para nuestra vida parroquial. Si algún feligrés quisiera identificar áreas de la vida parroquial que necesitan atención, especialmente relacionadas con nuestra Declaración de la Misión Parroquial que se encuentra en la portada del boletín parroquial, por favor envíeme su sugerencia.

Hoy, la Arquidiócesis honra a aquellos en la Vida Consagrada que celebran aniversarios de profesión religiosa en la Misa de las 11:00 am. Estos sacerdotes, hermanos y hermanas religiosos juntos representan miles de años de vivir los consejos evangélicos de castidad, pobreza y obediencia al servicio de Dios y su Iglesia. Demos gracias a Dios por los que están en la Vida Consagrada y cuántos han influido en nuestras vidas. Pidamos al Señor que proporcione urgentemente más vocaciones a la Vida Consagrada en la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia. Estamos muy agradecidos en nuestra parroquia de la catedral por la presencia y el ministerio de cinco hermanas: cuatro religiosas de la misericordia y una visitante parroquial de María Inmaculada.

El próximo domingo 26 de septiembre del 2021, el Arzobispo celebrará la Misa de las 11:00 AM. Esta Misa inicia la observancia del Mes del Respeto a la Vida en toda la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia. Vea en otra parte del boletín parroquial las muchas formas de observar el Mes del Respeto a la Vida en la Parroquia de la Catedral y en toda la Arquidiócesis.

El próximo domingo, la segunda colecta estará dirigida a los programas de educación religiosa de la Parroquia Catedral, especialmente para los niños en edad escolar. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias por su bondad y generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral.

Dios le bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill, Rector

Legacy of Life Foundation Baby Bottle Drive Fundraiser

At all Sunday Masses Sept. 25-26

Take a baby bottle donation envelope as you exit the church, take it home, fill it with cash or a check, made payable to Legacy of Life Foundation and return it the following weekend. Drop it in a bassinet at any of the Sunday Masses (Oct. 2-3). You may also hand it to the Sacristan before or at the conclusion of weekday Masses or put it in the locked donation box located in the gift shop.

The Legacy of Life Foundation supports the two crisis women's centers in Bucks County and Philadelphia, by fundraising to support the financial needs of these two life-sustaining centers. The unique mission of the centers it funds is the counseling approach used to empower women in an unplanned pregnancy to be free from fear and isolation so that they can freely choose life. To learn more & to make a donation visit the Legacy of Life Foundation at legacyoflifefoundation.org

Sacred Relics Of The Saints: Treasures Of The Church

The Ukrainian Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 830 N. Franklin St. presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Sunday September 19 at 12 noon. Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have occurred through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Do not miss it. And please spread the word.
