Dear Parishioners,

This is the Fifth Sunday of Lent! This Sunday we hear the very familiar Gospel story of the woman caught in adultery. The Lord teaches us two very important lessons for the Christian life and, especially so, as our Lent enters the last two weeks. The Lord says, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her (John 8:7)." We are all sinners and in need of the mercy and forgiveness of the Lord. One of the chief aims of Lent is to give us the opportunity to reflect seriously on the state of our soul, on our relationship with God and others, and on our observance of the commandments. This prayerful reflection leads to an awareness of our sins and the need to express our sorrow for them with the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. The Lord additionally says to the sinful woman, "Go, and from now on do not sin any more (John 8:11)." One of the gifts of a good confession is the grace, God's divine life come to dwell within us, that assists us to be a better Christian, to avoid sin and live more freely and fully the way of Jesus, his Gospel way. There are many opportunities here at the Cathedral Basilica and in so many other churches to make a good Lenten confession in preparation for Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum. May the lessons of today's Gospel inspire us not to miss this tremendous opportunity!

Lent turns a corner this Sunday. These last days of Lent focus more so on the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ and the great price that he paid with his death for our redemption and salvation. The prayers of the Church and the biblical readings for Mass during this time draw us more deeply into the passion of the Lord. They lead us into a more profound participation in the Sacred Paschal Triduum. I encourage you to join us for daily Mass during this last period of Lent. Additionally, I suggest that you prayerfully read the Passion of the Lord from one of the Gospels during this period. Perhaps, you might spend some time in prayer before the crucifix in your home and recite this traditional prayer:

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Your sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech You that You would impress upon my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm purpose of amendment, while with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Your five most precious Wounds; having before my eyes the words which David in prophecy spoke concerning Yourself, O good Jesus: "They have pierced my hands and feet; they have numbered all my bones."

Don't forget to purchase your tickets for our Parish Keys and Sword Event 2022. See the website to learn all about this wonderful parish event, <http://cathedralphila.org/keys/>. Also, please reach out to people, restaurants and businesses, that you think might want to have an ad in our Keys and Sword Ad Book.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the landscaping needs of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God bless you!

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

¡Este es el Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma! Este domingo escuchamos la muy familiar historia evangélica de la mujer sorprendida en adulterio. El Señor nos enseña dos lecciones muy importantes para la vida cristiana y, especialmente, ahora que nuestra cuaresma entra en las últimas dos semanas. El Señor dice: “Aquel de ustedes que no tenga pecado, que le tire la primera piedra (Juan 8:7)”. Todos somos pecadores y necesitamos la misericordia y el perdón del Señor. Uno de los principales objetivos de la cuaresma es darnos la oportunidad de reflexionar seriamente sobre el estado de nuestra alma, sobre nuestra relación con Dios y los demás, y sobre nuestra observancia de los mandamientos. Esta reflexión orante lleva a tomar conciencia de nuestros pecados y la necesidad de expresar nuestro dolor por ellos con el sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. El Señor también le dice a la mujer pecadora: “Vete, y de ahora en adelante no peques más (Juan 8:11)”. Uno de los dones de una buena confesión es la gracia, la vida divina de Dios venida a morar en nosotros, que nos ayuda a ser mejores cristianos, a evitar el pecado y a vivir más libre y plenamente el camino de Jesús, su camino evangélico. Hay muchas oportunidades aquí en la Catedral Basílica y en tantas otras iglesias para hacer una buena confesión de cuaresma en preparación para la Semana Santa y el Sagrado Triduo Pascual. ¡Que las lecciones del evangelio de hoy nos inspiren a no perder esta tremenda oportunidad!

La cuaresma da un giro este domingo. Estos últimos días de cuaresma se enfocan más aún en la pasión de nuestro Señor Jesucristo y el gran precio que pagó con su muerte por nuestra redención y salvación. Las oraciones de la Iglesia y las lecturas bíblicas de la Misa durante este tiempo nos llevan más profundamente a la pasión del Señor. Nos conducen a una participación más profunda en el Sagrado Triduo Pascual. Los animo a unirse a nosotros para la Misa diaria durante este último período de cuaresma. Además, le sugiero que lea en oración la Pasión del Señor de uno de los evangelios durante este período. Tal vez, podría pasar algún tiempo en oración ante el crucifijo en su hogar y recitar esta oración tradicional:

Mírame, ¡oh, mi amado y buen Jesús!, postrado en tu presencia; te ruego con el mayor fervor imprimas en mi corazón vivos sentimientos de fe, esperanza y caridad, verdadero dolor de mis pecados y propósito de jamás ofenderte, mientras que yo, con el mayor afecto y compasión de que soy capaz, voy considerando tus cinco llagas, teniendo presente lo que de Ti dijo el santo Profeta David: “Han taladrado mis manos y mis pies y se pueden contar todos mis huesos”.

No olvide comprar sus boletos para nuestro evento parroquial Llaves y espadas «Keys and Sword por sus siglas en inglés». Visite el sitio web para conocer todo sobre este maravilloso evento parroquial, <http://cathedralphila.org/keys/>. Además, comuníquese con personas, restaurantes y empresas que crea que podrían querer tener un anuncio en nuestro libro de anuncios de llaves y espadas.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad a la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta el próximo domingo estará dirigida a las necesidades de jardinería de la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Dios te bendiga!

Synod 2023 - "For a Synodal Church" Part 3: Mission

In honor of the 50th Anniversary of the establishment of the "Synod of Bishops" Pope Francis has asked the Church universally under the guidance of her Bishops to participate in a multi-year process of prayerful reflection and discernment to culminate in the next Synod of Bishops in 2023. This week we will consider the second theme of the 2023 Synod: "Mission."

In preparations for the Diocesan Phase of the Synod (happening now), the Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops published a helpful guide to assist local churches in their deliberations.

There we find the following definition of "Mission". We read:

"The Church exists to evangelize. We can never be centered on ourselves. Our mission is to witness to the love of God in the midst of the whole human family. This Synodal Process has a deeply missionary dimension to it. It is intended to enable the Church to better witness to the Gospel, especially with those who live on the spiritual, social, economic, political, geographical, and existential peripheries of our world. In this way, synodality is a path by which the Church can more fruitfully fulfil her mission of evangelization in the world, as a leaven at the service of the coming of God's kingdom."

Before ascending into heaven, Jesus gathered the disciples and gave them what scholars refer to as the "great commission": "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Mt 28:19) At her very heart, the Church is missionary, that is, she is sent in order to proclaim the Gospel to all. The Gospel is the good news of salvation. This salvation is not limited to a particular people, class, demographic etc. It is a gift meant not only for those who receive to enjoy for themselves but is in turn meant to be given away.

The synod attempts to remind the Church of her need to be about this weighty responsibility of evangelization. The opportunities presented to the faithful to gather and to enter into conversation about the faith invites us to rediscover the fact that our faith cannot remain one aspect of our lives but must in fact be the start and end of every thought, word and act. Jesus Christ is the one who calls us to go about this important work. Jesus' command to love is not an "option". It is not whether or not we will love but how. Similarly, the question is not whether or not we will evangelize but how. May this opportunity find us more faithful to Jesus' call to love and live as his disciples and lead our brothers and sisters within and outside the Church to do the same.

Fr. Matthew Biedrzycki
