Dear Parishioners,

This is the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come (Luke 12:40)." This verse from today's Gospel should strike all of us with an immediate need to make an honest accounting before the Lord. Am I ready to die today? Is my soul in the state of grace? Am I presuming on the mercy of the Lord? Have I done or am I doing my part to be ready for that hour that none of us expects?

*Yes, at the hour of our deaths, we want to be and should be prepared to meet the Lord in glory. However, the lesson of today's Gospel is that our preparation begins now for everlasting life. What does this mean? Everything we do at this moment - no matter how young or old we might be - is part of our pilgrimage to our true home in heaven. At this moment, we should have our eyes fixed on Jesus, knowing his love and grace, keeping his commandments, and witnessing his life at work in us. This habitual way of living the Christian life is how we are then in a constant state of preparation for when the Son of Man comes. In this way, our life on earth is always connected with our life in heaven. The closest we are to heaven on earth is during the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy. I encourage you as you participate in Mass and receive Holy Communion that you pray that at this moment you are prepared as ever for the Lord, if he should come at this moment.*

*I propose to you that we can all have a part in the eradication of terror and violence in the world - and sin and evil in our own hearts and those of others - if we seriously consider a discipline of prayer and fasting for this intention. Every Friday of the Church Year is a day of penance. In the United States, if Catholics - outside of Lent - choose to eat meat on Friday then they are to take on another penance on that day in commemoration of the death of the Lord. This penance can take a great variety of forms and should be a part of living the Christian life. Might we consider a Friday penance of additional praying and fasting from food between meals for peace and freedom from sin in the world and in our lives and those of others? If we take Jesus at his word, there is the power for good in this discipline. It is his power as our Savior and Redeemer that then rescues us from what seems more powerful than us. While there is a great benefit for us to adopt individually this practice, there is an even greater benefit when this would be the practice in your home with your spouse and/or with your family members. *Please consider this idea.

We are preparing again for a good number of catechumens and candidates to be a part of our adult Christian Initiation ministry this new season. With so many potential catechumens and candidates, we are in need of additional parish sponsors. If this interests you or you would like more information about a parish sponsor, please contact me.

Invite a family member, a neighbor, and/or a friend to join you for Holy Mass next Sunday at the Cathedral Basilica.

The second collection at Mass next Sunday will be directed to the national collection for the Catholic University of America. If possible, please make use of the on-line possibility of making your weekly offering. Thank you so very much for all of your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish.

God bless you!
Father Dennis Gill

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el decimonoveno domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. “Pues también ustedes estén preparados, porque a la hora en que menos lo piensen vendrá el Hijo del Hombre”. (Lucas 12:40).” Este versículo del evangelio de hoy debería golpearlos a todos con la necesidad inmediata de hacer una contabilidad honesta ante el Señor. ¿Estoy listo para morir hoy? ¿Está mi alma en estado de gracia? ¿Estoy presumiéndome de la misericordia del Señor? ¿He hecho o estoy haciendo mi parte para estar listo para esa hora que ninguno de nosotros espera?

Sí, en la hora de nuestra muerte, queremos estar y debemos estar preparados para encontrarnos con el Señor en la gloria. Sin embargo, la lección del evangelio de hoy es que nuestra preparación comienza ahora para la vida eterna. ¿Qué significa esto? Todo lo que hacemos en este momento, sin importar cuán jóvenes o viejos seamos, es parte de nuestra peregrinación a nuestro verdadero hogar en el cielo. En este momento, debemos tener los ojos fijos en Jesús, conociendo su amor y gracia, guardando sus mandamientos y siendo testigos de su vida obrando en nosotros. Esta forma habitual de vivir la vida cristiana es como estamos entonces en un estado constante de preparación para cuando venga el Hijo del Hombre. De esta manera, nuestra vida en la tierra está siempre conectada con nuestra vida en el cielo. Lo más cerca que estamos del cielo en la tierra es durante la celebración de la Sagrada Liturgia. Los animo a que, mientras participan en la Misa y reciben la Sagrada Comunión, oren para que en este momento estén preparados como siempre para el Señor, si Él viniera en este momento.

Les propongo que todos podemos tener parte en la erradicación del terror y la violencia en el mundo - y el pecado y el mal en nuestro propio corazón y en el de los demás - si consideramos seriamente una disciplina de oración y ayuno por esta intención. Cada viernes del año de la Iglesia es un día de penitencia. En los Estados Unidos, si los católicos, fuera de la Cuaresma, eligen comer carne el viernes, deben realizar otra penitencia ese día en conmemoración de la muerte del Señor. Esta penitencia puede tomar una gran variedad de formas y debe ser parte de la vida cristiana. ¿Podríamos considerar una penitencia los viernes de oración y ayuno adicionales de alimentos entre comidas por la paz y la libertad del pecado en el mundo y en nuestras vidas y las de los demás? Si tomamos la palabra de Jesús, hay poder para el bien en esta disciplina. Es su poder como nuestro Salvador y Redentor que luego nos rescata de lo que parece más poderoso que nosotros. Si bien es un gran beneficio para nosotros adoptar individualmente esta práctica, es aún más beneficioso cuando esta sería la práctica en su hogar con su cónyuge y/o con los miembros de su familia. Por favor considere esta idea.

Nos estamos preparando nuevamente para que un buen número de catecúmenos y candidatos sean parte de nuestro ministerio de Iniciación Cristiana de adultos en esta nueva temporada. Con tantos catecúmenos y candidatos potenciales, necesitamos padrinos/madrinas parroquiales adicionales. Si esto le interesa o desea obtener más información sobre un (a) padrino/madrina parroquial, comuníquese conmigo.

Invita a un familiar, vecino y/o amigo a acompañarte a la Santa Misa del próximo domingo en la Catedral Basílica.

La segunda colecta en la Misa del próximo domingo estará dirigida a la colecta nacional para la Universidad Católica de América. Si es posible, aproveche la posibilidad en línea de hacer su oferta semanal. Muchas gracias por toda su bondad y generosidad a la Parroquia Catedral.

¡Dios te bendiga!
Padre Dennis Gill
