Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Gospel for this Sunday (see Matthew 18: 21-35) is a challenge on many fronts. Before we consider the instruction of Jesus for this Sunday we need to recall it comes after weeks of hearing the Lord inviting us to a deeper faith in him and to follow him even to the cross. We are ready to learn as followers of Christ that we must forgive one another not seven times but seventy-seven times. Does this mean we forget the pain and hurt of being wronged in some way? Does this imply that we can allow almost anyone or anything to disrespect us and disregard our rights and dignity? No, this is not forgiveness. Forgiveness is the willingness to love someone without holding on to the offense. This is the way the Lord forgives us over and over again - more than seventy-seven times. This manner of forgiveness requires the true Christian spirit and the practice of it in our daily lives.

The Gospel for this Sunday also reminds us of our need to seek the forgiveness of Almighty God with the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. In a time when we are nearly numb to sin and its damaging effects on our relationship with the Lord and others, it is rather easy to put aside the compelling need as Christians to be contrite and to go to Confession. In the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, we actually meet the same Christ we meet in the Eucharist. Jesus is truly present to forgive us and fill us with his grace to avoid future sin and live more completely our Christian lives. The only way for our mortal sins to be forgiven and to be restored to communion with Christ and one another is through the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. It is not possible, and in fact, it is an offense against Holy Communion, to receive Eucharistic Communion when we are separated from communion with the Lord and one another with serious sin. I encourage you to look at your practice with regard to Confession. Have you made a good Confession lately? Are you in serious sin and should take immediate advantage of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation? Please don't stay away. Come to Confession with some regularity. When we know the personal forgiveness of God, we are even more ready to forgive others.

October is Respect Life Month in the United States. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will anticipate Respect Life Month with a commemoration of this theme at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass next Sunday, September 24, 2023. Bishop John McIntyre will be the celebrant of the Mass and the homilist. There are several ways to observe Respect Life Month. Perhaps the most significant way is to learn more about the life issues and to grasp more fully our Catholic commitment to do all we can to protect life from the first moment of conception until natural death. Another way to observe this month is to pray for the intention of respect for human life. Since October is also the month of the Holy Rosary, I suggest that we pray the Holy Rosary throughout this month with an intention for a deepening respect for human life. The Holy Rosary can be prayed in a variety of settings - at home, on the way to work, or during a walk. Praying the Holy Rosary before or after Mass is also a great practice.

Please keep the intention for peace in our City and an end to gun violence in our neighborhoods in your prayers. Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to support the religious education programs in the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God bless you, Father Dennis Gill, Rector

PRAYER | PARTICIPATION | GENEROSITY

One of the best things about summer is the Joy of time away from work and worries with your family.

Remember to remain grateful through prayer for all the joy-filled opportunities. Your Cathedral parish priests share do have a plan to pray that all of our parishioners have a happy summertime of fun, family and blessings!

There are some very cool ways to help us with our ministries this summer! As always, thank you for your generosity and for sharing your joy with us. Please remember our Cathedral parish with your gift.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us.

And let us remember to pray for each other always!

Declaración de la Misión de la Parroquia Catedral de los Santos Pedro y Pablo

Con Jesucristo como nuestra Cabeza y Fundamento, la Parroquia Catedral de los Santos Pedro y Pablo forma una vibrante comunidad Católica Romana en el centro de la ciudad y sirve a todos aquellos que vienen a la Catedral Basílica, la Iglesia Madre de la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia. Nuestra comunidad parroquial profesa nuestra fe católica, ministra a los demás y da la bienvenida a todos, enraizada en la Palabra de Dios y la celebración de los sacramentos de Jesucristo, nuestro Señor y Salvador.

Adoptado por el Consejo Pastoral Parroquial, agosto 10, 2021

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el vigésimo cuarto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. El evangelio de este domingo (ver Mateo 18, 21-35) es un desafío en muchos frentes. Antes de considerar la instrucción de Jesús para este domingo, debemos recordar que llega después de semanas de escuchar al Señor invitándonos a una fe más profunda en él y a seguirlo incluso hasta la cruz. Estamos listos para aprender como seguidores de Cristo que debemos perdonarnos los unos a los otros no siete veces sino setenta y siete veces. ¿Significa esto que olvidamos el dolor y el dolor de haber sido agraviados de alguna manera? ¿Implica esto que podemos permitir que casi cualquier persona o cualquier cosa nos falte el respeto e ignore nuestros derechos y dignidad? No, esto no es perdón. El perdón es la voluntad de amar a alguien sin aferrarse a la ofensa. Así es como el Señor nos perdona una y otra vez, más de setenta y siete veces. Esta forma de perdón requiere el verdadero espíritu cristiano y su práctica en nuestra vida diaria.

El evangelio de este domingo también nos recuerda nuestra necesidad de buscar el perdón de Dios Todopoderoso con el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. En una época en la que estamos casi insensibles al pecado y sus efectos dañinos en nuestra relación con el Señor y con los demás, es bastante fácil dejar de lado la necesidad apremiante como cristianos de ser contritos y de confesarnos. En el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación, en realidad nos encontramos con el mismo Cristo que encontramos en la Eucaristía. Jesús está realmente presente para perdonarnos y llenarnos de su gracia para evitar pecados futuros y vivir más plenamente nuestra vida cristiana. La única manera de que nuestros pecados mortales sean perdonados y restaurados a la comunión con Cristo y con los demás es a través del Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. No es posible, y de hecho, es una ofensa a la Sagrada Comunión, recibir la Comunión Eucarística cuando estamos separados de la comunión con el Señor y unos de otros con pecado grave. Le animo a que observe su práctica con respecto a la Confesión. ¿Has hecho una buena Confesión últimamente? ¿Estás en pecado grave y deberías aprovechar inmediatamente el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación? Por favor no te alejes. confíesate con cierta regularidad. Cuando conocemos el perdón personal de Dios, estamos aún más dispuestos a perdonar a los demás.

Octubre es el Mes del Respeto a la Vida en los Estados Unidos. La Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia anticipará el Mes del Respeto a la Vida con una conmemoración de este tema en la Misa solemne de las 11:00 AM el próximo domingo 24 de septiembre del 2023. El Obispo John McIntyre será el celebrante de la misa y el homilista. Hay varias formas de celebrar el Mes del Respeto a la Vida. Quizás la forma más significativa sea aprender más sobre los problemas de la vida y comprender más plenamente nuestro compromiso católico de hacer todo lo posible para proteger la vida desde el primer momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Otra forma de observar este mes es orar por la intención de respetar la vida humana. Dado que octubre es también el mes del Santo Rosario, sugiero que recemos el Santo Rosario a lo largo de este mes con la intención de profundizar el respeto por la vida humana. El Santo Rosario se puede rezar en una variedad de entornos: en casa, de camino al trabajo, durante una caminata. Rezar el Santo Rosario antes o después de la Misa también es una gran práctica.

Por favor mantengan en sus oraciones la intención de paz en nuestra ciudad y el fin de la violencia armada en nuestros vecindarios. ¡Nuestra Señora, Reina de la Paz, ruega por nosotros!

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad hacia la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo estará dirigida a apoyar los programas de educación religiosa en la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

“Be Empowered for Mission – Participating in the Healing Work of Jesus” Healing Conference with Dr. Mary Healy: September 22-23, 2023

Through Baptism every member of the Church, Laity and Clergy, is given supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit to participate in Christ's mission. In fact, all the gifts of the Spirit are used to build up and heal the Body of Christ. Come and learn what Scripture reveals about the Lord's healing power and how we can experience it in our lives. Have your heart lifted up as you see Jesus act in perceptible and sometimes dramatic ways. Be equipped to share in Christ's Mission: building up and healing the Body of Christ, including your own family! This Conference consists of four talks by Dr. Mary Healy, Professor of Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, Detroit, and bestselling author and international speaker. Her books include The Spiritual Gifts Handbook and Healing.

Conference: Friday 7:30—9:00PM;

Saturday 8:30AM - 3:00PM

Cost: $75 for Adults; $25 for Students; Seminarians, Clergy, and Religious. Fee includes lunch. Seating is Limited.

Weekend Confession/Mass:

Saturday 3:00PM/4:00PM. All are welcome.

Healing Service: Saturday 6:30PM. Free.

No registration required.
