Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Lord is teaching us again this Sunday with a parable, a story with many layers of meaning and multiple messages. This Sunday's Gospel (see Matthew 26: 1-16a) speaks to the generosity of God. Many of us have expectations of God on our terms, on how we measure things. Today's Gospel - with the laborers, regardless of how long they worked, all receiving the same daily wage - reminds us that God's terms matter. In relationship to all of us, God is perfectly equal in loving us and providing for us. His Son suffered and died for each of us equally. We all have the equal promise of heaven. This radical justice on the part of God with all of us does not suggest we are minimal in our response to God's love and gifts. Rather, we too must be just in our response to God. We are to give to him our very selves - all that we have and all that we are - all the time. This is what God expects of us. This is the witness and example of his divine Son on the cross, of Mary and the Saints. "Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last (Matthew 16a)."

Next Sunday, October 1, 2023, we will commemorate the anniversary of the Canonization of Saint Katharine Drexel. Saint Katharine Drexel was canonized by Pope Saint John Paul II on October 1, 2000 in Saint Peter's Square in Rome. Our Philadelphia Saint speaks in many ways to our times. She invites an awareness of those on the margins and the duty of us all to bring to them the Gospel. Justice and equality were indeed hallmarks of her apostolic work. Removing the divide of racism from the works of the Church is part of her legacy. As we celebrate this important anniversary, let us turn to Saint Katharine Drexel more and more in our prayers to come to the aid of so many today. May Saint Katharine Drexel inspire us on the path to a holy way of life. Saint Katharine Drexel, pray for us!

The Parish Fall Collection (formerly known as the Block Collection) is upon us. Information about this annual collection and our parish financial status will be sent to your homes during the first week of October. As with last year, the proceeds of the Parish Fall Collection will be directed to the fund for the painting of the interior of our Basilica. I do not plan to have a capital campaign for this project. Rather, I hope to raise sufficient funds over time from various sources and donations. Each parishioner is asked to do what they can at this time to contribute to the Parish Fall Collection. I thank you in advance for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish.

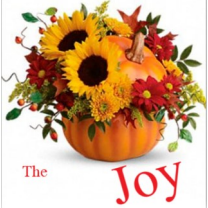

Invite a family member, a neighbor, and/or a friend to join you for Holy Mass next Sunday at the Cathedral Basilica.

Please keep the intention for peace in our City and an end to gun violence in our neighborhoods in your prayers. Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. I am especially grateful for your ongoing support of the Catholic Charities Appeal. We are at 63% of our 49, 075 dollar goal. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the poor and needy in the neighborhood of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God bless you,
 Father Dennis Gill

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el vigésimo quinto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. El Señor nos está enseñando nuevamente este domingo con una parábola, una historia con muchas capas de significado y múltiples mensajes. El evangelio de este domingo (ver Mateo 26: 1-16a) habla de la generosidad de Dios. Muchos de nosotros tenemos expectativas de Dios según nuestros términos, según cómo medimos las cosas. El evangelio de hoy, con los trabajadores, independientemente de cuánto tiempo trabajaron, todos recibiendo el mismo salario diario— nos recuerda que los términos de Dios importan. En relación con todos nosotros, Dios es perfectamente igual en amarnos y proveernos. Su Hijo sufrió y murió por cada uno de nosotros por igual. Todos tenemos la misma promesa del cielo. Esta justicia radical de parte de Dios con todos nosotros no sugiere que seamos mínimos en nuestra respuesta al amor y los dones de Dios. Más bien, nosotros también debemos ser justos en nuestra respuesta a Dios. Debemos entregarle nosotros mismos, todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos, todo el tiempo. Esto es lo que Dios espera de nosotros. Éste es el testimonio y ejemplo de su divino Hijo en la cruz, de María y de los santos. “Así, los últimos serán primeros, y los primeros serán últimos (Mateo 16a)”.

El próximo domingo 1 de octubre de 2023 conmemoraremos el aniversario de la Canonización de Santa Katharine Drexel. Santa Katharine Drexel fue canonizada por el Papa San Juan Pablo II el 1 de octubre de 2000 en la Plaza de San Pedro de Roma. Nuestro Santo de Filadelfia habla de muchas maneras de nuestros tiempos. Invita a tomar conciencia de los marginados y del deber de todos de llevarles el evangelio. De hecho, la justicia y la igualdad fueron características distintivas de su labor apostólica. Eliminar la división del racismo en las obras de la Iglesia es parte de su legado. Mientras celebramos este importante aniversario, recurramos cada vez más a Santa Katharine Drexel en nuestras oraciones para ayudar a tantas personas hoy. Que Santa Katharine Drexel nos inspire en el camino hacia una forma de vida santa. Santa Katharine Drexel, ¡ruega por nosotros!

La Colecta Parroquial de Otoño (anteriormente conocida como Colección Block) ya está aquí. La información sobre esta colecta anual y el estado financiero de nuestra parroquia se enviará a sus hogares durante la primera semana de octubre. Como el año pasado, las ganancias de la Colecta Parroquial de Otoño se destinarán al fondo para pintar el interior de nuestra Basílica. No planeo tener una campaña de capital para este proyecto. Más bien, espero recaudar fondos suficientes con el tiempo de diversas fuentes y donaciones. Se pide a cada feligrés que haga lo que pueda en este momento para contribuir a la Colecta Parroquial de Otoño. Le agradezco de antemano su bondad y generosidad hacia la Parroquia Catedral.

El próximo domingo invita a un familiar, un vecino y/o un amigo a acompañarte a la Santa Misa en la Catedral Basílica.

Por favor mantengan en sus oraciones la intención de paz en nuestra ciudad y el fin de la violencia armada en nuestros vecindarios. ¡Nuestra Señora, Reina de la Paz, ruega por nosotros!

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad hacia la Parroquia Catedral. Estoy especialmente agradecido por su continuo apoyo a la Campaña de Caridades Católicas. Estamos al 63% de nuestra meta de 49, 075 dólares. La segunda colecta el próximo domingo estará dirigida a los pobres y necesitados del barrio de la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la Oficina Parroquial de la Catedral o donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill
