Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time! We have heard the question in today’s Gospel many times. “Who do people say that I am? (Mark 8: 27).” Several different responses follow. Jesus presses his disciples further. “But who do you say that I am? (Mark 8: 29).” He wanted his disciples to know that he was the Christ as Peter declared. At this point in Mark’s Gospel the Lord is beginning to reveal the Mystery of salvation to his followers. As the Christ, the Savior of the world, he was to die and be raised up. This is why Jesus was sent into the world. Through this Mystery, we are indeed saved and redeemed. This is the Mystery of Faith -the death and resurrection of the Lord - we celebrate in the Eucharist and in all the Sacraments. If this Mystery saves and redeems us, then this same Mystery is to give shape to our Christian lives. Thus, the Lord, after he reveals to his disciples his own death for our salvation, insists that these same disciples take up their cross and follow him. A remarkable connection is made here for us. The celebration of the Christ event especially in the Eucharist is the indispensable source of living this same event with our Christian lives. We profess Jesus is the Christ, we celebrate his Mystery - truly present to us in the Eucharist above all, so that we can live what we profess in our everyday life.

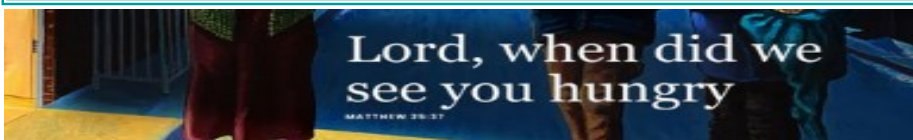

Next Sunday, September 22, 2024, Bishop Michael Fitzgerald will be the celebrant and homilist at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass in the Basilica. This is the occasion for the men and women Religious Jubilarians in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to come together and give thanks on the special anniversaries of their consecrated lives. Everyone is welcome to this Mass and asked to pray for the Jubilarians. This annual celebration is a reminder to all of us of the gift of Religious Life in the Church and to promote this vocation whenever possible. The seats for the Jubilarians, their friends and families will be reserved toward the front of the Basilica for this Mass.

All our parish students in elementary and high school and their families have been invited to come together as a group to participate in the Anticipated Mass on Saturday, September 28, 2024, in the Basilica. At this time, the students will receive a special blessing for the beginning of the new school year. Let us keep our students in our prayers during these first days of school.

Please keep the intention for peace in our city and an end to gun violence in our neighborhoods in your prayers. Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the support of the liturgical music programs in the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God Bless you!
 Father Dennis Gill, Rector

PRAYER | PARTICIPATION | GENEROSITY

As our children begin a new school year, may they be joy-filled and confident! May they learn to love and turn to you, dear God, for help and guidance in their lives.

Grant our students the courage to find their purposes, to seek your will in everything that they do, and to love others as you love us. Give them the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of you, dear God! We pray this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Parents, thank you for talking with your children about the charitable gifts your family makes to our Cathedral parish so that they too will live generously as you have taught them.

Have an Awesome School Year!

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos feligreses,

¡Hoy es el vigésimo cuarto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario! Hemos escuchado muchas veces la pregunta en el evangelio de hoy: “¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo?” (Marcos 8:27). A continuación, se dan varias respuestas diferentes. Jesús presiona a sus discípulos aún más: “Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?” (Marcos 8:29). Quería que sus discípulos supieran que él era el Cristo, como declaró Pedro. En este punto del evangelio de Marcos, el Señor comienza a revelar el Misterio de la salvación a sus seguidores. Como Cristo, el Salvador del mundo, debía morir y resucitar. Por eso Jesús fue enviado al mundo. A través de este Misterio, somos verdaderamente salvados y redimidos. Este es el Misterio de la Fe: la muerte y resurrección del Señor, que celebramos en la Eucaristía y en todos los Sacramentos. Si este Misterio nos salva y nos redime, entonces este mismo Misterio debe dar forma a nuestra vida cristiana. Así, el Señor, después de revelar a sus discípulos su propia muerte por nuestra salvación, insiste en que estos mismos discípulos tomen su cruz y lo sigan. Aquí se establece una conexión notable para nosotros. La celebración del acontecimiento de Cristo, especialmente en la Eucaristía, es la fuente indispensable para vivir este mismo acontecimiento con nuestra vida cristiana. Profesamos que Jesús es el Cristo, celebramos su Misterio, verdaderamente presente para nosotros en la Eucaristía sobre todo, para que podamos vivir lo que profesamos en nuestra vida cotidiana.

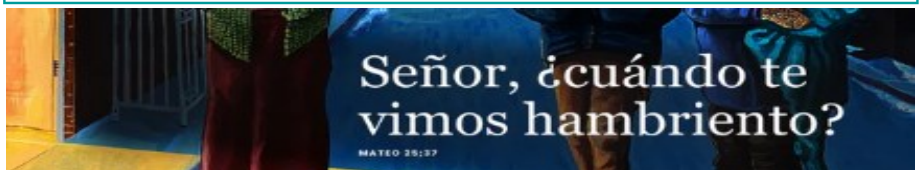

El próximo domingo 22 de septiembre del 2024, el Obispo Michael Fitzgerald será el celebrante y homilista de la Misa solemne de las 11:00 AM en la Basílica. Esta es la ocasión para que los hombres y mujeres jublares religiosos de la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia se reúnan y den gracias por los aniversarios especiales de sus vidas consagradas. Todos son bienvenidos a esta Misa y se les pide que oren por los jublares. Esta celebración anual es un recordatorio para todos nosotros del don de la Vida Religiosa en la Iglesia y para promover esta vocación siempre que sea posible. Los asientos para los jublares, sus amigos y familiares se reservarán en el frente de la Basílica para esta Misa.

Todos los estudiantes de nuestra parroquia en la escuela primaria y secundaria y sus familias han sido invitados a reunirse como grupo para participar en la Misa Anticipada el sábado 28 de septiembre del 2024 en la Basílica. En este momento, los estudiantes recibirán una bendición especial para el comienzo del nuevo año escolar. Mantengamos a nuestros estudiantes en nuestras oraciones durante estos primeros días de escuela.

Por favor, mantengan en sus oraciones la intención por la paz en nuestra ciudad y el fin de la violencia armada en nuestros vecindarios. ¡Nuestra Señora, Reina de la Paz, ruega por nosotros!

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad hacia la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará al apoyo de los programas de música litúrgica en la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar por correo sus ofrendas dominicales a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o utilizar las diversas formas de donar electrónicamente. Visite <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Dios los Bendiga!
Father Dennis Gill, Rector
