Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time! In the Holy Gospel for this Sunday (see Mark 9: 30-37) Jesus continues to make known to his disciples his pending death and resurrection. The disciples are still uncertain as to what this means and instead argue about an unrelated topic. They wanted to know who was the greatest. In a masterful way - and using the example of a little child - Jesus explains that the real issue is not who is the greatest but who is the least. The child represents anything but greatness. The child represents dependency, someone in need, someone who needs the care of another. When our focus is on someone other than ourselves, it is then possible to focus on God and all God does for us. It is possible to see clearly how much our Father loves us in sending his Son to die for us for our salvation and redemption. May our eyes always be on the Lord! In this way, our eyes turn to those around us first before ourselves.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia honors those in the Consecrated Life celebrating anniversaries of religious profession at the 11:00 AM Mass today. These religious priests, Brothers and Sisters represent together thousands of years of living the evangelical counsels of chastity, poverty and obedience in the service of God and his Church. Let us thank God for those in the Consecrated Life and for the many that have influenced our lives. Let us ask the Lord to provide urgently for more numerous vocations to the Consecrated Life in the Archdiocese. We are so grateful in our Cathedral Parish for the Consecrated Life and ministry of Dominican Father Matthew Carroll, of three Religious Sisters of Mercy of Alma - Sister Marie Faustina, Sister Mary Raphael, Sister Margaret Mary, and of our Parish Visitor of Mary Immaculate, Sister Mary Luchia.

Cardinal Mueller, former Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, as part of a public tour of the United States, will visit the Archdiocese of Philadelphia this week. He will celebrate and preach the 12:05 PM Mass on Thursday, September 26, 2024, in the Cathedral Basilica. There will be a light reception following Mass in Drexel Hall following Holy Mass. All are welcome!

As a reminder, all our parish students in elementary and high school and their families are invited to come together as a group to participate in the Anticipated Mass on Saturday, September 28, 2024, in the Basilica. At this time, the students will receive a special blessing for the beginning of the new school year. Let us keep our students in our prayers during these first weeks of school.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the support of special maintenance projects of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God Bless you!
Father Dennis Gill
Rector

PRAYER | PARTICIPATION | GENEROSITY

As our children begin a new school year, may they be joy-filled and confident! May they learn to love and turn to you, dear God, for help and guidance in their lives.

Grant our students the courage to find their purposes, to seek your will in everything that they do, and to love others as you love us. Give them the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of you, dear God! We pray this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Parents, thank you for talking with your children about the charitable gifts your family makes to our Cathedral parish so that they too will live generously as you have taught them.

Have an Awesome School Year!

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos feligreses,

¡Hoy es el vigésimo quinto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario! En el santo evangelio de este domingo (ver Marcos 9: 30-37) Jesús continúa dando a conocer a sus discípulos su muerte y resurrección pendientes. Los discípulos aún no están seguros de lo que esto significa y en cambio discuten sobre un tema que no tiene relación con el tema. Querían saber quién era el más grande. De manera magistral, y usando el ejemplo de un niño pequeño, Jesús explica que la verdadera cuestión no es quién es el más grande, sino quién es el más pequeño. El niño representa todo menos la grandeza. El niño representa la dependencia, alguien necesitado, alguien que necesita el cuidado de otro. Cuando nos centramos en alguien que no somos nosotros mismos, entonces es posible centrarnos en Dios y en todo lo que Dios hace por nosotros. Es posible ver claramente cuánto nos ama nuestro Padre al enviar a su Hijo a morir por nosotros para nuestra salvación y redención. ¡Que nuestros ojos estén siempre puestos en el Señor! De esta manera, nuestros ojos se dirigen primero a los que nos rodean antes que a nosotros mismos.

La Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia rinde homenaje a los miembros de la Vida Consagrada que celebran aniversarios de profesión religiosa en la Misa de hoy de las 11:00 AM. Estos sacerdotes, hermanos y hermanas religiosos representan juntos miles de años de vivir los consejos evangélicos de castidad, pobreza y obediencia al servicio de Dios y su Iglesia. Demos gracias a Dios por los miembros de la Vida Consagrada y por los muchos que han influido en nuestras vidas. Pidamos al Señor que provea urgentemente para que haya más vocaciones a la Vida Consagrada en la Arquidiócesis. En nuestra Parroquia Catedral estamos muy agradecidos por la vida consagrada y el ministerio del Padre Dominic Matthew Carroll, de tres hermanas religiosas de la Misericordia de Alma: la Hermana Marie Faustina, la Hermana Mary Raphael, la Hermana Margaret Mary, y de nuestra Visitadora Parroquial de María Inmaculada, la Hermana Mary Luchia.

El Cardenal Mueller, ex Prefecto de la Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe, como parte de una gira pública por los Estados Unidos, visitará la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia esta semana. Celebrará y predicará la Misa de las 12:05 PM el jueves 26 de septiembre del 2024 en la Basílica Catedral. Habrá una recepción ligera después de la Misa en el Drexel Hall después de la Santa Misa. ¡Todos son bienvenidos!

Como recordatorio, todos los estudiantes de nuestra parroquia en la escuela primaria y secundaria y sus familias están invitados a reunirse como grupo para participar en la Misa Anticipada el sábado 28 de septiembre del 2024 en la Basílica. En este momento, los estudiantes recibirán una bendición especial para el comienzo del nuevo año escolar. Mantengamos a nuestros estudiantes en nuestras oraciones durante estas primeras semanas de escuela.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará al apoyo de proyectos especiales de mantenimiento de la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina de la Parroquia Catedral o hacer uso de las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Dios los Bendiga!
