Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time! The Lord is rather strong in his language about sin in this Sunday’s Gospel (see Mark 9: 38 -43, 45, 47-48). We live in a time where sin - the choice not to love God and follow his saving Word - enjoys a comfort level among many Christians. In fact, many Christians do not see sin for what it really is. It is no different than the first sin, that is, the willful placing of ourselves above what God expects of us, loving him in return with a complete fidelity to his commandments. This is the way to peace in this life and eternal peace in the next. Sin not only separates us from God but also, as Jesus instructs, leads others away from God. It would be better for us to lose our life or parts of our body than lead someone into sin or sin ourselves. This begs a serious question for all of us. Do I have a hatred for sin? As at our baptism, every Easter we reject Satan and all his evil ways. Yet often we allow sin to creep into our lives and at times it even goes unnoticed by us. With the clarity of the Lord’s teaching in today’s Gospel, let us examine our consciences with a sincere desire to turn away from all sin and be even more faithful to Jesus and all he commands of us. The practice of regular Confession is the real antidote to any casualness regarding sin for the Christian.

This coming Tuesday, October 1, 2024, begins the Month of the Holy Rosary. The Holy Rosary, with its mysteries and prayers, reminds us of the Gospel and the promises of our salvation. It also reminds us that our Blessed Mother Mary - with her vocation as the Mother of God and her life as a disciple of the Lord - are inseparable from the saving events of her Divine Son. As Christians, we pray the Holy Rosary for many different reasons. We have confidence that Our Lady will bring our many needs to her Son. We delight in the company of Our Lady as we pray. We join ourselves to the actions of Our Lady and her Only Begotten Son for our salvation. Most of all, we are united with Our Lady in offering our daily lives with our Savior to the glory of our Father in heaven. I encourage you to pray the Rosary, especially during this Month of the Holy Rosary. Perhaps consider inviting your spouse, your children, or neighbors to join you.

The Parish Pastoral Council of the Cathedral Parish provides a great service to me as the pastor with insight, guidance, and suggestions for us to live out more fully our parish mission. At this time two of the members of the Council complete their three-year term, Dan Heenan, representing single adults, and Magdalena Erario, representing young adults. If you know of someone in the parish who may have an interest in the work of the Council and serve in these two positions, please inform me, Father Carroll, or a member of the Council over the next two weeks.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the support of the poor and needy in the neighborhood of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God Bless you!

 Rector

PRAYER | PARTICIPATION | GENEROSITY

"Be Strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged for the Lord your God, is with you wherever you go". Joshua 1:9

Gracious and loving Lord,
May cool mornings invigorate our souls, and the crunch of leaves and fall breezes remind us that change is a blessing. May we imagine ourselves in your arms, close to your heart, surrounded by your light, and find comfort in your consistency as the world around us is constantly changing. We praise you for being a God who loves us and takes care of us. We are grateful you are with us in all circumstances and seasons. Guide us to live with a giving heart, a generous heart and a grateful heart.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us.

And let us remember to pray for each other always!

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos feligreses,

¡Hoy es el vigésimo sexto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario! El Señor es bastante fuerte en su lenguaje sobre el pecado en el evangelio de este domingo (ver Marcos 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48). Vivimos en un tiempo en el que el pecado - la elección de no amar a Dios y seguir su Palabra salvadora - goza de un nivel de comodidad entre muchos cristianos. De hecho, muchos cristianos no ven el pecado como lo que realmente es. No es diferente del primer pecado, es decir, el colocarnos voluntariamente por encima de lo que Dios espera de nosotros, amándolo a cambio con una fidelidad completa a sus mandamientos. Este es el camino hacia la paz en esta vida y la paz eterna en la próxima. El pecado no solo nos separa de Dios, sino que también, como enseña Jesús, aleja a otros de Dios. Sería mejor para nosotros perder nuestra vida o partes de nuestro cuerpo que llevar a alguien al pecado o pecar nosotros mismos. Esto plantea una pregunta seria para todos nosotros. ¿Odio el pecado? Como en nuestro bautismo, cada Pascua rechazamos a Satanás y todos sus malos caminos. Sin embargo, a menudo permitimos que el pecado se introduzca en nuestras vidas y, a veces, incluso pasa desapercibido para nosotros. Con la claridad de la enseñanza del Señor en el evangelio de hoy, examinemos nuestras conciencias con un deseo sincero de alejarnos de todo pecado y ser aún más fieles a Jesús y a todo lo que Él nos manda. La práctica de la Confesión regular es el verdadero antídoto contra cualquier despreocupación con respecto al pecado para el cristiano.

El próximo martes 1 de octubre del 2024 comienza el Mes del Santo Rosario. El Santo Rosario, con sus misterios y oraciones, nos recuerda el evangelio y las promesas de nuestra salvación. También nos recuerda que nuestra Santísima Madre María, con su vocación como Madre de Dios y su vida como discípula del Señor, son inseparables de los acontecimientos salvíficos de su Divino Hijo. Como cristianos, rezamos el Santo Rosario por muchas razones diferentes. Tenemos confianza en que Nuestra Señora traerá nuestras muchas necesidades a su Hijo. Nos deleitamos en la compañía de Nuestra Señora mientras oramos. Nos unimos a las acciones de Nuestra Señora y su Hijo Unigénito para nuestra salvación. Sobre todo, estamos unidos a Nuestra Señora al ofrecer nuestra vida diaria con nuestro Salvador para la gloria de nuestro Padre en el cielo. Los animo a rezar el Rosario, especialmente durante este Mes del Santo Rosario. Tal vez consideren invitar a su cónyuge, a sus hijos o vecinos a unirse a ustedes.

El Consejo Pastoral Parroquial de la Parroquia Catedral me brinda un gran servicio como párroco con conocimientos, orientación y sugerencias para que vivamos más plenamente nuestra misión parroquial. En este momento, dos de los miembros del Consejo completan su mandato de tres años, Dan Heenan, en representación de los adultos solteros, y Magdalena Erario, en representación de los adultos jóvenes. Si conocen a alguien en la parroquia que pueda estar interesado en el trabajo del Consejo y servir en estos dos puestos, infórmenme a mí, al Padre Carroll, o a un miembro del Consejo durante las próximas dos semanas.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad hacia la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo será para ayudar a los pobres y necesitados del vecindario de la Parroquia de la Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina de la Parroquia de la Catedral o utilizar las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Visite <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Dios los Bendiga!

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION FOR CHILDREN

Cathedral Sacramental Preparation 2024-2025

The Cathedral Parish will offer classes again this coming year for children who need to prepare for the sacraments of Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

Please remember –

This is NOT a full religious education program.

Your child may attend these classes whether he or she is attending a Catholic school in the Archdiocese, is in a religious education program at another parish, is NOT in religious education, or is in a home-based program.

There will be a section of each class for primarily English-speaking children/families, and another for primarily Spanish-speaking children/families.

Children coming for First Holy Communion preparation will be prepared for the Sacrament of Penance during the fall; after New Year classes will focus on the Holy Eucharist and specific preparation for First Holy Communion. Confirmation preparation will follow the same schedule.

WAYS TO REGISTER:

Please scan the QR codes below:

- a) Classes for English-speaking students will meet on Tuesdays from 3:30-4:30 PM beginning October. To register for the English-speaking classes, simply click HERE or scan this QR code:

- b) Classes for Spanish-speaking students meet Sunday mornings from 11:00 AM -12:15 PM before the Spanish Mass. To register for the Spanish-speaking classes, simply CLICK HERE or scan this QR code:

The Sacrament of Confirmation for school age children will be on Sunday, April 27, 2025 at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass. First Holy Communion will be on Sunday, May 4, 2025 at the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass.

Questions? Contact – Gina Ingiosi, Director of Religious Education gingiosi@archphila.org or go to <https://cathedralphila.org/parish-info/rechildren/>
