Dear Parishioners,

This is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the liturgical time during the year. Although the period of Ordinary Time does not focus on a particular mystery of Christ, it gives us the opportunity to encounter Christ in all his teachings and miracles. Today, in the Holy Gospel we hear about the miracle at the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee. This familiar story of the Lord changing water into wine runs deeply with theological meaning, especially following Christmas and Epiphany Time. This first of the signs of the Lord continues the Epiphany revelation of Jesus as the Savior and Redeemer. This miracle points to the change—the new life—that takes place with all of creation and everyone with the Lord’s death and resurrection. As we hear of this miracle today, it recalls the grace of Christmas and Epiphany that promises a change in all of us as followers of Christ. It also points to the change that should occur in each of us as we encounter our Savior and Redeemer in the Holy Eucharist. As we enter this time during the year—for several weeks until Ash Wednesday—may we have the ears to hear each Sunday the invitation Christ gives us to be changed according to his plan for us and with his grace.

This Monday, January 20, 2025, we observe Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. This holiday has come to have a twofold focus. On the one hand, we recall the legacy of Dr. King as a champion of civil rights. On the other hand, we see the need to give expression to the equal dignity of each person by deeds of service that we can freely render to one another. Let us keep the holiday by living our own Christian mandate to respect one another regardless of race and our duty to be ready to help our neighbors in their need.

This Wednesday, January 22, 2025, is the anniversary of the 1973 Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion in the United States. Since then, 60 million plus unborn children lost their lives to legalized abortion. This scar on the face of our nation continues to call Christians, everyone, into action in the defense of human life, from the first moment of conception until natural death. Respect for life is not the work of a few but the duty of all. The one thing that all of us can do is pray for the protection of human life.

Since 2011, Catholics in the United States, at the direction of the American Bishops, have observed January 22 as a day of prayer and penance. The intention of our prayer is for the full restoration and legal guarantee of the right to life. Our penance is for the violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. Decide today that you will pray for this intention this Wednesday and what your personal sacrifice will be. Consider coming to the 7:15 AM or 12:05 PM Mass in the Cathedral Chapel as part of your prayer for the day. The Holy Rosary will follow each Mass for the intention for the protection of human life.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the work of the Little Sisters of the Poor and their care for the elderly poor. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you so very much.

God bless you,
Father Dennis Gill, Rector

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el segundo domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el tiempo litúrgico del año. Aunque el período del Tiempo Ordinario no se centra en un misterio particular de Cristo, nos da la oportunidad de encontrarnos con Cristo en todas sus enseñanzas y milagros. Hoy, en el santo evangelio, escuchamos acerca del milagro en la fiesta de bodas de Caná de Galilea. Esta historia familiar del Señor convirtiendo el agua en vino tiene un profundo significado teológico, especialmente después de la Navidad y el tiempo de Epifanía. Este primero de los signos del Señor continúa la revelación de la Epifanía de Jesús como el Salvador y Redentor. Este milagro señala el cambio -la nueva vida- que tiene lugar en toda la creación y en todos con la muerte y resurrección del Señor. Al escuchar sobre este milagro hoy, recuerda la gracia de la Navidad y la Epifanía que promete un cambio en todos nosotros como seguidores de Cristo. También señala el cambio que debería ocurrir en cada uno de nosotros cuando nos encontramos con nuestro Salvador y Redentor en la Sagrada Eucaristía. Al entrar en esta época del año (durante varias semanas hasta el Miércoles de Ceniza), que tengamos oídos para escuchar cada domingo la invitación que Cristo nos hace para ser transformados según su plan para nosotros y con su gracia.

Este lunes 20 de enero del 2025, celebramos el Día de Martin Luther King, Jr. Esta festividad ha llegado a tener un doble enfoque. Por un lado, recordamos el legado del Dr. King como defensor de los derechos civiles. Por otro lado, vemos la necesidad de expresar la dignidad igualitaria de cada persona mediante actos de servicio que podamos prestar libremente unos a otros. Conservemos la festividad viviendo nuestro propio mandato cristiano de respetarnos unos a otros independientemente de la raza y nuestro deber de estar dispuestos a ayudar a nuestros vecinos en sus necesidades.

Este miércoles 22 de enero del 2025 es el aniversario de la decisión de la Corte Suprema Roe v. Wade del 1973 que legalizó el aborto en los Estados Unidos. Desde entonces, más de 60 millones de niños no nacidos perdieron la vida a causa del aborto legalizado. Esta cicatriz en el rostro de nuestra nación sigue llamando a los cristianos, a todos, a la acción en defensa de la vida humana, desde el primer momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural. El respeto a la vida no es obra de unos pocos, sino deber de todos. Lo único que todos podemos hacer es orar por la protección de la vida humana.

Desde 2011, los católicos de los Estados Unidos, bajo la dirección de los obispos estadounidenses, han observado el 22 de enero como un día de oración y penitencia. La intención de nuestra oración es por la plena restauración y garantía legal del derecho a la vida. Nuestra penitencia es por las violaciones a la dignidad de la persona humana cometidas a través de actos de aborto. Decide hoy que orarás por esta intención este miércoles y cuál será tu sacrificio personal. Considera asistir a la Misa de las 7:15 AM o de las 12:05 PM en la Capilla de la Catedral como parte de tu oración del día. El Santo Rosario seguirá a cada Misa por la intención de la protección de la vida humana.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su bondad y generosidad hacia la parroquia de la Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará a la obra de las Hermanitas de los Pobres y su cuidado por los ancianos pobres. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina de la Parroquia de la Catedral o utilizar las muchas formas de donar electrónicamente. Visite <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill

How to the Share the Kerygma: Catechist Training Saturday, February 8, 2025 - 9am-12pm Our Lady of Grace Gym, Penn del, PA (Bucks County)

“Kerygma” is the Greek word that the Church uses to refer to the proclamation of the core message of the Gospel. This core proclamation has its own power to change hearts and win souls for Jesus Christ. In recent years, the Church is asking us to recover the kerygma and put it once again at the center of catechesis. During this training, catechists will learn simple tools for proclaiming the kerygma in their classrooms, creating the conditions for students to have a personal encounter with the living Jesus.

Announcement: Archbishop Nelson J. Perez's Pastoral Letter and Invitation to Consultation Sessions

An Invitation from Archbishop Pérez

Archbishop Nelson J. Perez has released a significant pastoral letter that calls all Catholics to a conversion of heart—a shift toward a lifestyle and mindset of a missionary disciple. This call urges us to commit seriously to life in Jesus Christ and to reach out to those who have fallen away from the faith, especially those Catholics who no longer attend Mass.

At the heart of the letter is the Archbishop's vision for the future of the Church in Philadelphia, which includes an exciting new initiative known as “The Fourth Way.”

Take the Time to Read and Reflect We encourage all to read the Archbishop's pastoral letter, watch the accompanying video, and explore the Frequently Asked Questions on the website. All of this content can be found at trustandhope.org.

Attend a Consultation Session As part of this important moment in our Archdiocese, the letter inaugurates a period of widespread consultation regarding “The Fourth Way.” All Catholics are invited to attend a consultation session, where you can learn more about this initiative and provide your valuable input.

Don't miss out! Dates, locations, and registration for the consultation sessions are also available on trustandhope.org.

We invite you to be part of this vital conversation for the future of our Church—please visit trustandhope.org today!

Communion for the Sick

The priests of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul are prepared to serve the spiritual needs of our Catholic brothers and sisters who live in Residences such as Atria, Kennedy House, Penn Center House, Riverside Presbyterian, Watermark, Spring Garden Towers, and anyone else who may be confined to their homes. Therefore, if you are aware of anyone who would like a priest to visit and administer the Sacrament of Penance, the Sacrament of the Sick, and Holy Communion, please let us know. There is no better way that we can emulate Jesus Christ than by sharing his love with all whom he places in our paths, especially the sick and the aged who long for his healing presence.

Please pass the above requested information on to us by calling the Parish Office at 215-561-1313. Be assured of the love, concern, and prayers of your priests at the Cathedral, and in your goodness, pray for us that we may always be channels of Christ's love and peace to others. God bless you always and in all ways.
