Dear Parishioners,

This is the Fifth Sunday of Lent! This Sunday, we hear the very familiar Gospel story of the woman caught in adultery. The Lord teaches us two very important lessons for the Christian life especially so, as our Lent enters the last two weeks. The Lord says, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her (John 8:7).” We are all sinners and in need of the mercy and forgiveness of the Lord. One of the chief aims of Lent is to give us the opportunity to reflect seriously on the state of our soul, on our relationship with God and others, and on our observance of the commandments. This prayerful reflection leads to an awareness of our sins and the need to express our sorrow for them with the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. The Lord additionally says to the sinful woman, “Go, and from now on do not sin anymore (John 8:11).” One of the gifts of a good confession is the grace, God’s divine life that comes to dwell within us, that assists us to be a better Christian, to avoid sin and live more freely and fully the way of Jesus, his Gospel way. There are many opportunities here at the Cathedral Basilica and in so many other churches to make a good Lenten confession in preparation for Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum. May the lessons of today’s Gospel inspire us not to miss this tremendous opportunity!

Lent turns a corner this Sunday. These last days of Lent focus more so on the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ and the great price that he paid with his death for our redemption and salvation. The prayers of the Church and the biblical readings for Mass during this time draw us more deeply into the Passion of the Lord. They lead us into a more profound participation in the Sacred Paschal Triduum. I encourage you to join us for daily Mass during this last period of Lent. Additionally, I suggest that you prayerfully read the Passion of the Lord from one of the Gospels during this period. Perhaps you might spend some time in prayer before the crucifix in your home and recite this traditional prayer:

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Your sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech You that You would impress upon my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm purpose of amendment, while with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Your five most precious Wounds; having before my eyes the words which David in prophecy spoke concerning Yourself, O good Jesus: “They have pierced my hands and feet; they have numbered all my bones.”

Please keep in your prayers the many adult and school-age candidates who will receive the Sacraments during Easter at the Cathedral Parish. These final weeks of Lent are especially significant for the adult candidates who prepare for full initiation at the Easter Vigil and, for those already baptized, for the conferral of Confirmation and the Eucharist during Easter Time.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish and to the Annual Catholic Charities Appeal. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the poor and needy in the neighborhood of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Thank you very much.

God bless you, Father Dennis Gill, Rector

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

¡Este es el quinto domingo de Cuaresma! Este domingo escuchamos la conocida historia evangélica de la mujer sorprendida en adulterio. El Señor nos enseña dos lecciones muy importantes para la vida cristiana, especialmente ahora que nuestra Cuaresma entra en las últimas dos semanas. El Señor dice: “Aquel de ustedes que no tenga pecado, que le tire la primera piedra” (Juan 8,7). Todos somos pecadores y necesitamos la misericordia y el perdón del Señor. Uno de los principales objetivos de la Cuaresma es brindarnos la oportunidad de reflexionar seriamente sobre el estado de nuestra alma, sobre nuestra relación con Dios y con los demás, y sobre nuestra observancia de los mandamientos. Esta reflexión orante nos lleva a ser conscientes de nuestros pecados y a la necesidad de expresar nuestro dolor por ellos mediante el Sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. El Señor también le dice a la mujer pecadora: Vete y ya no vuelvas a pecar” (Juan 8,11). Uno de los dones de una buena confesión es la gracia, la vida divina de Dios que mora en nosotros y nos ayuda a ser mejores cristianos, a evitar el pecado y a vivir con mayor libertad y plenitud el camino de Jesús, su evangelio. Aquí, en la Catedral Basílica y en tantas otras iglesias, hay muchas oportunidades para hacer una buena confesión cuaresmal en preparación para la Semana Santa y el Triduo Pascual. ¡Que las enseñanzas del evangelio de hoy nos inspiren a no desaprovechar esta gran oportunidad!

La Cuaresma llega a su fin este domingo. Estos últimos días de Cuaresma se centran más en la Pasión de nuestro Señor Jesucristo y en el gran precio que pagó con su muerte por nuestra redención y salvación. Las oraciones de la Iglesia y las lecturas bíblicas de la Misa durante este tiempo nos sumergen más profundamente en la Pasión del Señor. Nos llevan a una participación más profunda en el Triduo Pascual. Los animo a unirse a nosotros en la Misa diaria durante este último período de Cuaresma. Además, les sugiero que lean con oración la Pasión del Señor de uno de los evangelios durante este período. Quizás podrías dedicar un tiempo a orar ante el crucifijo en tu hogar y recitar esta oración tradicional:

Mírame, ¡oh mi amado y buen Jesús!, postrado de rodillas ante tu Santísima presencia; y con el más ferviente deseo de mi alma, te ruego y te suplico que imprimas en mi corazón vivos sentimientos de fe, esperanza y caridad, con verdadero arrepentimiento de mis pecados y un firme propósito de nunca más ofenderte, mientras que yo, con todo el amor y considerando el dolor de Tus cinco preciosísimas Llagas; teniendo ante mis ojos las palabras que David en profecía habló acerca de Ti, oh buen Jesús: “Han taladrado mis manos y mis pies y se pueden contar todos mis huesos.”

Por favor, mantengan en sus oraciones a los numerosos candidatos adultos y en edad escolar que recibirán los Sacramentos durante la Pascua en la Parroquia Catedral. Estas últimas semanas de Cuaresma son especialmente significativas para los candidatos adultos que se preparan para la iniciación plena en la Vigilia Pascual y, para los ya bautizados, para la administración de la Confirmación y la Eucaristía durante el Tiempo Pascual.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral y con la Campaña Anual de Caridades Católicas. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará a los pobres y necesitados del vecindario de la Parroquia Catedral. Pueden enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina de la Parroquia Catedral o utilizar las diversas opciones para donar electrónicamente. Visiten <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>. Muchas gracias.

¡Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre Dennis Gill, Rector

Your feedback will be invaluable in helping us understand our parish's growth and plan for the future. Thank you for your participation!

EVANGELIZATION

LENT-5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Welcome to the second part of Lent! Lent has two parts (of unequal length) and here on the fifth Sunday of Lent we begin the second part, traditionally called Passiontide. Whereas the first part focused on our need for conversion, to turn away from our sins and return to God, this second half looks backwards at what Christ suffered for us in His Passion, death, and subsequent Resurrection. As our final period of preparation before the Sacred Paschal Triduum, how might we up the ante of our Lenten observances? Here are some suggestions:

One of the best ways to prepare to celebrate Christ's saving death on the Cross is to call to mind all the events that surrounded it. Praying the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary is a wonderful way to do this, either individually, as a family, or with friends. The Stations of the Cross is another wonderful and typically-Lenten devotion recalling the events of Christ's Passion. (See elsewhere in this bulletin for information on the remaining times we are doing the Stations here at the cathedral.) I would be remiss if I did not also recommend going straight to the source and reading the Scriptural accounts of Jesus' suffering, death, and Resurrection (Matthew 26-28, Mark 14-16, Luke 22-24, John 12-21). John's Gospel in particular recounts many more of Jesus' words and prayers at the Last Supper than the other Gospels do, and so makes for good Passiontide reading.

If you read through all the Gospel accounts of Jesus' crucifixion, you will note that Jesus speaks seven times on the Cross, known as the Seven Last Words. Many saints and preachers have written meditations on the Seven Last Words (the most famous in recent times is probably Fulton Sheen), many of which you can find online with a simple Google search.

If you have yet to go to confession this Lent, there's no time like the present to examine your conscience and pick a time to come receive the forgiveness of your sins. And speaking of examinations of conscience, this is also a good time to do an examination of conscience regarding our Lenten practices: have we been engaging in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving as much as we wanted to this Lent? Passiontide gives us an opportunity to redouble our efforts in those areas, particularly in prayer. Praying before a crucifix can be a helpful way to center our prayer on Jesus and to keep in the forefront of our minds what He has done for us. Using modern technology, there are plenty of good Catholic resources to be found online, including (but certainly not limited to) Formed.org, the Amen app, and the Hallow app. They have plenty of Lenten videos and other resources to help us enter into the mystery of the Cross.

I hope that you have found these Lenten reflections helpful. As Fr. Gill has noted, Lent passes very quickly, and these last couple of weeks especially so. May God give us the grace to use these last weeks well, that we might be prepared for all of the Easter graces that He wishes to pour into our hearts.

God Bless,
 Fr. Carroll

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION Friday, April 18, 2025

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic has hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them heavily depended on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS!
