Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time. "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough (Luke 13, 24)." These words of Jesus to us from today's Holy Gospel might be perplexing for some. The Father sent his only begotten Son into the world to suffer, die, and be raised up for the salvation of all. Yet, the Lord speaks of the narrow gate, a metaphor for the path to salvation, which for some will be difficult to enter. Is there a contradiction here? Did the Lord come to save us all, or did he not? Yes, the Lord does desire that all people be with him one day in heaven for all eternity. The Lord has accomplished this possibility with his saving death and resurrection. However, our salvation does not rest on the Lord's divine work alone. We have a part to play, a very important part. Salvation is a gift from the Lord and not a guarantee. It is a gift generously given by the Lord. The narrowness of the gate, the path to salvation, speaks to our response to the Lord's gift. Our response includes our acceptance of the love of the Lord for us with by living faithfully according to His commandments and seeking His will in all things. When we put the Lord aside, the gate becomes even more narrow. We can even close the gate. Let us pray that we may trust in the mercy of the Lord to keep us in his way and have the strength of his grace to follow His way through the saving gate!

The Parish Cathedral Shop provides a great service to our parishioners and so many visitors to our Cathedral Basilica. Paula Terreri, our Cathedral Shop manager, is outstanding in her generosity and service to the shop and those who visit it. I encourage you to look at what is available in our little store, especially for spiritual reading. Spiritual reading is an excellent aid to living the Christian life.

This Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, August 26 through 28, 2025, Archbishop Pérez will gather with all the administrators and teachers of all the Archdiocesan High Schools and Elementary Schools in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. "Reclaiming Our Hope, Our Light and Our Joy" is the theme of these days with a focus for all to encounter Christ and know his amazing power at work within us. The Archbishop invites everyone throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to support this most important initiative with prayer. Please remember this intention throughout this coming week.

Invite a family member, a neighbor, and/or a friend to join you for Holy Mass next Sunday at the Cathedral Basilica.

Please keep the intention for peace in our world, especially those parts most torn apart by war, in your prayers. Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

We are still in need of a part-time cook at the Cathedral Rectory for Tuesday through Thursday evenings. If you might be interested or know someone who is, please contact me directly at fr.dgill@archphila.org. Thank you!

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to special maintenance projects of the Cathedral Parish. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>.

God Bless!

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el vigésimo primer domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. «Esfuércense en entrar por la puerta, que es angosta, pues yo les aseguro que muchos tratarán de entrar y no podrán» (Lucas 13, 24). Estas palabras de Jesús, del santo evangelio de hoy, pueden resultar desconcertantes para algunos. El Padre envió a su Hijo Unigénito al mundo para sufrir, morir y resucitar por la salvación de todos. Sin embargo, el Señor habla de la puerta angosta, una metáfora del camino a la salvación, que para algunos será difícil de alcanzar. ¿Hay alguna contradicción aquí? ¿Vino el Señor a salvarnos a todos o no? Sí, el Señor desea que todos estén con Él un día en el cielo por toda la eternidad. El Señor ha hecho posible esta posibilidad con su muerte y resurrección salvadoras. Sin embargo, nuestra salvación no depende solo de la obra divina del Señor. Tenemos un papel que desempeñar, un papel muy importante. La salvación es un don del Señor y no una garantía. Es un don generoso que nos da el Señor. La estrechez de la puerta, el camino a la salvación, refleja nuestra respuesta al don del Señor. Nuestra respuesta incluye aceptar el amor del Señor por nosotros, viviendo fielmente de acuerdo con sus mandamientos y buscando su voluntad en todo. Cuando dejamos de lado al Señor, la puerta se estrecha aún más. Incluso podemos cerrarla. Oremos para que confiemos en la misericordia del Señor, que nos mantendrá en su camino, y para que tengamos la fuerza de su gracia para seguirlo a través de la puerta de la salvación.

La Tienda Parroquial de la Catedral ofrece un excelente servicio a nuestros feligreses y a los numerosos visitantes de nuestra Catedral Basílica. Paula Terreri, nuestra gerente, se destaca por su generosidad y servicio a la tienda y a quienes la visitan. Los animo a que echen un vistazo a lo que tenemos disponible en nuestra pequeña tienda, especialmente para la lectura espiritual. La lectura espiritual es una excelente ayuda para vivir la vida cristiana.

Este martes, miércoles y jueves, del 26 al 28 de agosto del 2025, el Arzobispo Pérez se reunirá con todos los administradores y maestros de las escuelas secundarias y primarias de la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia. “Recuperando nuestra esperanza, nuestra luz y nuestra alegría” es el tema de estos días, con el objetivo de que todos encuentren a Cristo y conozcan su asombroso poder que obra en nosotros. El Arzobispo invita a todos en la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia a apoyar esta importante iniciativa con sus oraciones. Por favor, recuerden esta intención durante la próxima semana.

Inviten a un familiar, vecino o amigo a la Santa Misa del próximo domingo en la Catedral Basílica.

Por favor, mantengan en sus oraciones la intención de que haya paz en nuestro mundo, especialmente en las zonas más devastadas por la guerra. ¡Nuestra Señora, Reina de la Paz, ruega por nosotros!

Seguimos necesitando un cocinero (a) a tiempo parcial en la Rectoría de la Catedral para las tardes de martes a jueves. Si está interesado (a) o conoce a alguien que lo esté, por favor, contácteme directamente a fr.dgill@archphila.org. ¡Gracias!

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará a proyectos especiales de mantenimiento de la Parroquia Catedral. Puede enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o utilizar las diversas opciones para donar electrónicamente. Consulte <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>.

¡Que Dios los bendiga!
Padre Dennis Gill, Rector

HAPPY LABOR DAY

Monday, September 1, 2025

Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral Chapel at 9:00 am.
The Holy Rosary will follow Mass in the Cathedral Chapel

The Cathedral Basilica and the Parish Office are closed on Labor Day.

This last of the summer holidays was instituted as a tribute to the American laborers and their contribution to the prosperity of our country. As Christians, this holiday gives us the opportunity to recognize the dignity of all workers and all work and to ask the Lord to bless the success of our hands.

This Labor Day let us ask the heavenly help of Saint Joseph, the Worker, to intercede for all workers. Let us also pray for all those seeking employment, that soon they will find work.

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us!
