Dear Parishioners,

This is the Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Today we hear the familiar Gospel reading about the ten lepers (Luke 17: 11-19). Many aspects of this story bear on our following Jesus and living the Christian life. The one that I want to highlight is the fact that these people were lepers. In addition to the tragedy of the disease suffered by these people, they were also outcasts in the time of Jesus. They raised fears among people and were often treated very poorly and rejected. Yet, they did not hesitate to cry out to Jesus for his healing, for his pity. The Lord responded by cleansing them from their disease in response to their request. In the Lord Jesus, there are no lepers of any type, no outcasts from his love and mercy. We learn from the Lord the same message and have his power and grace to imitate him. Today, it is very easy to categorize people in so many different ways and to put them at a distance from us, from our care and respect. Perhaps a brief examination of conscience might reveal some of these categories of those we keep at a distance in our own minds and hearts. Our struggle to accept and respect is real. So must our desire in Christ to do so be as real. In Christ, there are no lepers. In our hearts, with the help of Christ's grace, there also must be no lepers.

Next Sunday, October 19, 2025, is World Mission Sunday. This yearly observance highlights our personal responsibility to be a missionary at home and to support the missionaries and missions here in the United States and abroad. We can support the missionaries and missions in so many ways. An important way is financially. Next week, the second collection will be for the missions. This money will be distributed all throughout the world by our Archdiocesan Pontifical Mission Society for the Propagation of the Faith. We can also support the missionaries and missions by our prayers, especially praying the Holy Rosary for this intention. The 9:30 AM Mass next Sunday, celebrated by Archbishop Perez, will be the Mission Sunday celebration. Also, next Sunday, the 11:00 AM Solemn Mass will be the annual White Mass for the Philadelphia medical community. This Mass is typically celebrated close to the Feast of Saint Luke, October 18, the patron of physicians.

During this month, you will receive a mailing about the annual Parish Fall Collection (formerly known as the Block Collection), which asks for the financial support of all our parishioners. I appeal to you to be generous with this annual Parish Fall Collection. We need three times as much as we receive in our Sunday Collection each week to meet our financial responsibilities. The other needed monies come from donations, the Basilica shrines, the wedding fees, and this collection. Typically, this collection brings between twenty-five and thirty thousand dollars to the Parish. Let's make our goal for this collection a fifty-thousand-dollar supplement to the operating fund. Thank you so much!

I remind you that October is Respect Life Month and the Month of the Holy Rosary. When you pray the Rosary during these days, please remember the intention of respect for human life from the first moment of conception until natural death.

Thank you to all our parishioners and visitors for your goodness and generosity to the Cathedral Parish. The second collection next Sunday will be directed to the Missions. You can mail your Sunday offerings to the Cathedral Parish Office or make use of the many ways to give electronically. Please see <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>.

God Bless!
Father Dennis Gill, Rector

PRAYER PARTICIPATION GENEROSITY

Be Strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged for the Lord your God, is with you wherever you go.

Joshua 1:9

Gracious and loving Lord, May cool mornings invigorate our souls, and the crunch of leaves and fall breezes remind us that change is a blessing. May we imagine ourselves in your arms, close to your heart, surrounded by your light, and find comfort in your consistency as the world around us is constantly changing. We praise you for being a God who loves us and takes care of us. We are grateful you are with us in all circumstances and seasons. Guide us to live with a giving heart, a generous heart and a grateful heart.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us.

St. Katharine Drexel, Pray for us.

REFLEXIÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados feligreses,

Este es el vigésimo octavo domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Hoy escuchamos el conocido evangelio sobre los diez leprosos (Lucas 17:11-19). Muchos aspectos de esta historia influyen en nuestro propio seguimiento a Jesús y en nuestra vida cristiana. El que quiero destacar es que estas personas eran leprosas. Además de la tragedia de la enfermedad que padecían, también eran marginados en tiempos de Jesús. Generaban temor entre la gente y a menudo eran maltratados y rechazados. Sin embargo, no dudaron en implorar a Jesús su sanación y su compasión. El Señor respondió purificándolos de su enfermedad en respuesta a su petición. En el Señor Jesús, no hay leprosos de ningún tipo, ni marginados de su amor y misericordia. Aprendemos del Señor el mismo mensaje y tenemos su poder y gracia para imitarlo. Hoy en día, es muy fácil categorizar a las personas de tantas maneras diferentes y alejarlas de nosotros, de nuestro cuidado y respeto. Quizás un breve examen de conciencia pueda revelar algunas de estas categorías de personas que mantenemos a distancia en nuestra mente y corazón. Nuestra lucha por aceptar y respetar es real. Así debe ser también nuestro deseo en Cristo de hacerlo. En Cristo, no hay leprosos. En nuestros corazones, con la ayuda de la gracia de Cristo, tampoco debe haber leprosos.

El próximo domingo, 19 de octubre del 2025, es el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Esta celebración anual resalta nuestra responsabilidad personal de ser misioneros en casa y de apoyar a los misioneros y las misiones aquí en Estados Unidos y en el extranjero. Podemos apoyar a los misioneros y las misiones de muchas maneras. Una forma importante es económicamente. La próxima semana, la segunda colecta será para las misiones. Este dinero será distribuido en todo el mundo por nuestra Oficina Pontifical Misionera Arquidiocesana para la Propagación de la Fe. También podemos apoyar a los misioneros y las misiones con nuestras oraciones, especialmente rezando el santo rosario por esta intención. La misa de las 9:30 AM del próximo domingo, celebrada por el Arzobispo Pérez, será la celebración del Domingo de las Misiones. Además, el próximo domingo, a las 11:00 AM, se celebrará la Misa Anual Blanca para la comunidad médica de Filadelfia. Esta misa se celebra típicamente cerca de la festividad de San Lucas, el 18 de octubre, patrono de los médicos.

Durante este mes, recibirán un correo sobre la Colecta Anual Parroquial de Otoño (anteriormente conocida como la Colecta de Bloque), que solicita el apoyo financiero de todos nuestros feligreses. Les pido su generosidad con esta Colecta Anual Parroquial de Otoño. Necesitamos tres veces más de lo que recibimos en nuestra Colecta Dominical cada semana para cumplir con nuestras responsabilidades financieras. El resto del dinero necesario proviene de donaciones, los santuarios de la Basílica, los gastos de boda y esta colecta. Normalmente, esta colecta aporta entre veinticinco mil y treinta mil dólares a la parroquia. Nuestra meta para esta colecta es un suplemento de cincuenta mil dólares al fondo operativo. ¡Muchas gracias!

Les recuerdo que octubre es el Mes del Respeto a la Vida y el Mes del Santo Rosario. Al rezar el Rosario durante estos días, recuerden la intención de respetar la vida humana desde el primer momento de la concepción hasta la muerte natural.

Gracias a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes por su generosidad con la Parroquia Catedral. La segunda colecta del próximo domingo se destinará a las Misiones. Pueden enviar sus ofrendas dominicales por correo a la oficina parroquial de la Catedral o utilizar las diversas opciones para donar electrónicamente. Visiten <http://cathedralphila.org/donate/>.

¡Que Dios los bendiga!

OCTOBER: THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

The Church has set aside the whole month of October to honor the Holy Rosary, a prayer that invites us to enter into the great mysteries of Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Pope Leo XIII—often called "the Pope of the Rosary"—urged the faithful to make the Rosary a daily habit, especially during this month, describing it as a "form of prayer is particularly pleasing to the Blessed Virgin, and that it is especially suitable as a means of defense for the Church and all Christians" (Pope Leo XIII, Supremi Apostolatus, §5). The Holy Rosary is a powerful means of seeking God's peace for the world and protection for the Church. It engages our mind, heart, and will, drawing us ever closer to Jesus through the loving intercession of His Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Let us renew our devotion to Our Mother in this October: pray the Rosary alone, with family, or together as a community, and ask Mary to help us grow in holiness, unity, and hope for all.

"The Rosary had been instituted by St. Dominic to appease the anger of God and to implore the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary" ~ Gregory XIII
